EAST PROVIDENCE
SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
EAST PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

1940

Foreword

THE door is open. We are about to take our first steps into a cold and uninterested world, a world fraught with troubles and wars.

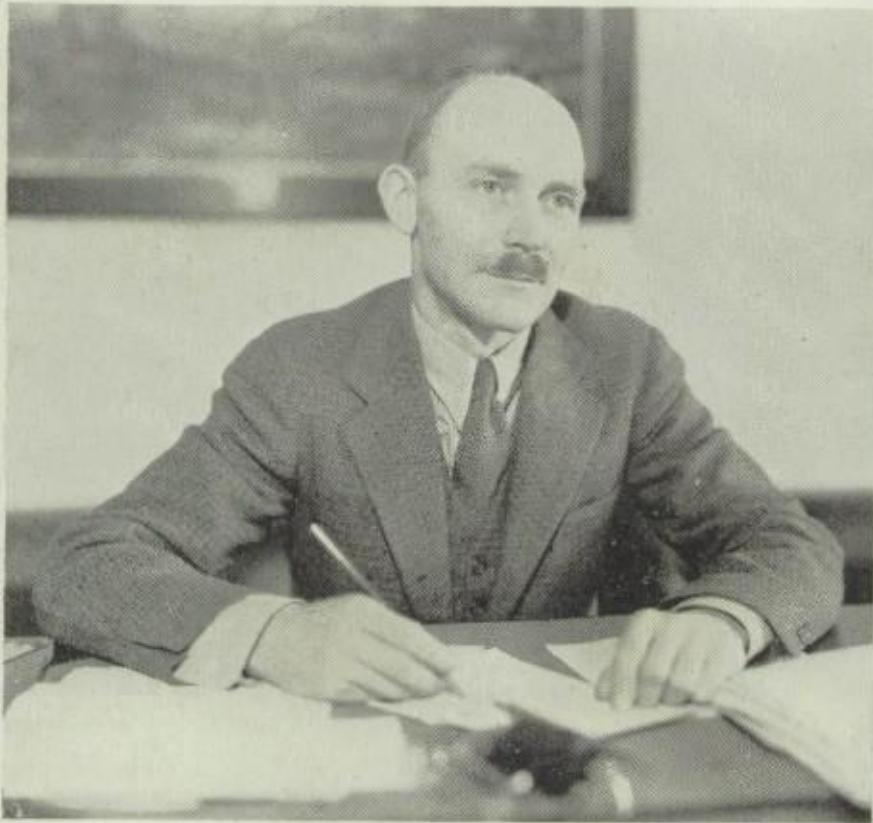

But no matter how difficult this venture seems, may we ever remember that we entered the portals of East Providence High School with the same amount of trepidation.

What a different emotion we experience now upon leaving this same institution! We are bidding farewell to one of the most enjoyable periods in our lives.

In order to retain our vivid memories of school friends and experiences after the door is closed, we have published this pictorial account of our three years sojourn here.

In times of loneliness and even of despair, may we always turn to the pages of this volume for friendship and encouragement.

Those of us who are concerned with the administration of the Senior High School, and that includes the faculty of the school and the school department, are vitally concerned with your welfare both before and after graduation.

To those of you who have plans for education beyond high school we have stood prepared to advise you in the selection of an educational institution and to aid you in taking care of the details involved in getting into college.

As for the vast majority of you, however, who are completing your formal education this year we have a very special interest in your immediate welfare and a desire to do what lies within our means in getting you established in the matter of earning a livelihood.

In the Providence Junior Placement Bureau young people of this town, who have completed their studying, have the opportunity to register for employment. Many of our graduates have been aided in getting employment through this agency. Because of the large scope of the work undertaken by this agency we have through our Guidance Department undertaken to do work of a little more intimate nature with East Providence pupils who are seeking employment. In the course of a year a number of our pupils are placed in quite a variety of full time and part time jobs

In order that this work of the Guidance Department may be made more effective we are asking that you help out in every way that you can by keeping us informed as to your special interests and aptitudes. Knowing too that you will be interested in helping your classmates we suggest that if you, yourself, are fortunate enough to be employed you keep us informed as to job possibilities for others.

Sometime next fall a questionnaire will probably be sent you concerning your experiences since graduation and it is hoped that you will respond.

Marguerite

MARGUERITE GREANEY ADAMS

26 Dartmouth Avenue, Riverside

Honor Society, G. A. A. (2-3), Hi-Tri (1),
Basketball (2-3), Swimming (1), Bowling (3),
Class Secretary (2).

Marguerite shone in all her glory last year as junior class secretary—and she's still shining. She's the quiet, unobtrusive, sweet type that you don't very often find and that everyone likes. On top of all this she's a constant member of our honor roll. Marguerite has a lot before her, and she'll make a lot of it!

BERNADETTE DOLORES ALMEIDA

221 Mauran Avenue

Honor Society, Camera Club (1-2-3), Informer
(1-2-3).

Bernadette is that tall, friendly girl who does so well in her school work. Her amiable disposition is evident in each task that she undertakes. She invariably cooperates without reluctance. With the help of these characteristics she will surely get ahead in life.

HELEN ELIZABETH ANDERSON

47 Ivy Street

Honor Society

Helen has shown herself to be exceptionally competent in all that she has done; so competent, in fact, that she got a good job before school closed in February. She was frequently about school with her friend, Elsie. She has been loyal, friendly, and helpful. We hope that she will have a prosperous future.

MEREDITH FANNY ANTHONY

53 Allens Avenue, Riverside

Mem's well-groomed dark hair, her smart clothes, and most of all, her voice are her marks of individuality. There is no need to introduce her as one of the Swing Sisters. Although rather quiet and calm, she has a great deal of rhythm and initiative. There is no doubt that success will be great in her life.

HELEN ELIZABETH ARMINGTON

2762 Pawtucket Avenue

Helen is one of the very few people who never seem to have any off days. She is always quiet in class, but her friends like her because she is both a cheerful and an interesting companion. With this disposition as a basis, her road in life should be a pleasant one to travel.

DOROTHY ARZOOYAN

220 Juniper Street

Honor Society, G. A. A. (2-3), Informer (3), Baseball (2), Ping Pong (2).

Dot is one of our classmates whose names can always be found on the honor roll. Her diligence, her cooperative manner, and her sincerity are only a few of her many good qualities. She has been of great assistance as a typist on the Informer staff. With her agreeable way and cheerful attitude she can be certain of success in whatever she undertakes.

FLORENCE MAY BAIN

29 Dartmouth Avenue, Riverside

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Treasurer (3), Inter-Club Secretary (3), Crimson (3), Picture Committee (3), Informer (3).

We all envy Florence's scholastic ability, good taste, and ambition. She is one of the most popular girls in the class, and her smooth dancing has been displayed at all E. P.'s social gatherings. Florence has shown her dependability as treasurer of Hi-Tri and as an able assistant in the office. Best of everything to you, Flossie.

SUSAN LOUISE BAKER

6 Cora Avenue

Susan is well known for her sweet and charming personality. She is very popular with both boys and girls. An easy way to recognize her is to look for a cute and dainty miss with a very sunny smile and a singular giggle. Susan's sociability and keen sense of humor will certainly aid her in the future.

Lots of Luck, Audra Givis

AVIS GENEVA BALLOU
77 Grosvenor Avenue

Avis is the girl with the sunny disposition and the pleasing smile. Hers are the hair and the eyes that all the girls envy so much. She is always present at school dances and other school functions. We wish her all the success possible in whatever work she may attempt.

ANASTASIA BARBIERI
355 Waterman Avenue

Everyone who knows Anastasia likes her, but everyone doesn't know her. She has gone quietly about and chosen only a few friends, but she is faithful to these few. Her teachers like her because she is a model pupil, never failing to prepare her homework. It is probable that Anastasia will reach her goal quietly and unobserved.

JULIA HYL A BARDEN

1459 Pawtucket Avenue, Rumford

Who is this demure young lady coming down the corridor? Julia, of course. Her friendly ways and sweet disposition have made her popular. She may be quiet in a classroom, but that can't last forever. Julia is an excellent student, and we know that she will keep up her good work in the future.

RHEA PENNY BARNSTEAD

71 Cedar Street, Riverside

G. A. A. (2-3), Debating (2), Home Economics Club (3), Basketball (2), Table Tennis (2), Swimming (3).

"Pep, vim, and vigor" is the best way to describe Penny. Burrowville High School certainly lost a happy-go-lucky girl when Penny left. Her happy disposition is the envy of many students. A quiet classroom—then a smothered laugh; it couldn't be Penny, could it? We wish her a successful life.

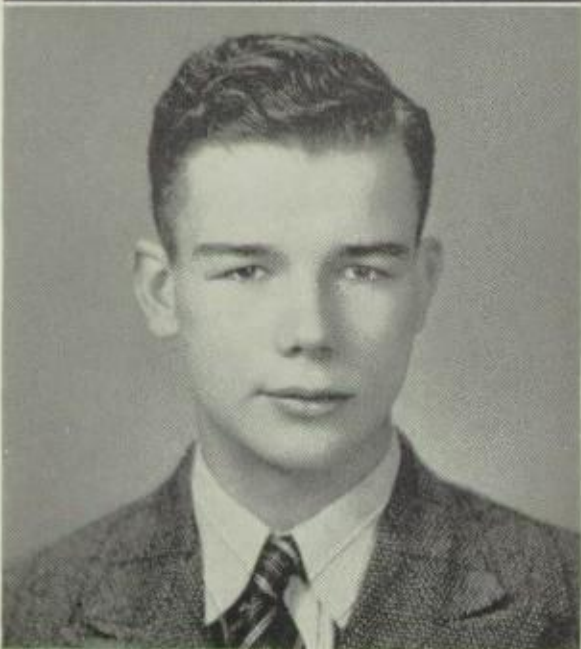

ALICE THERESA BARRY

703 North Broadway

We all recognize Alice as the girl with the pretty red hair. Her friends are impressed by her ingenuity and jollity. Throughout her high school course she has exhibited fine qualities which have made many students admire her. Alice will certainly be missed at E. P. after graduation.

PAUL EDWARD BASSETT

3103 Pawtucket Avenue

Band (2-3), Cross Country (3), Fencing (2-3), Hi-Y (3), Camera Club (3), Track (3).

Paul is a member and an ardent supporter of the band. Because he indulges in raillery, very frequently his friends obtain revenge by kidding him about his ability to play the alto horn. Nevertheless, along with all his other accomplishments, Paul is a good player. His ability to work well and to keep friends will make life sweet for Paul.

ANNE ELIZABETH BELL

81 Massasoit Avenue

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), G. A. A. (1-2), Bowling (3), Crimson (3), Latin Society (1).

Betty is one of our tall, attractive seniors. She is quiet within the classroom; but once outside, she can equal any girl in chit-chat and the like. Her name can always be found on the honor roll. She is a member of several clubs and supports all their activities, such as dances, parties, and plays.

MAVIS MILDRED BENT

55 Viola Avenue, Riverside

Crimson (3), Hi-Tri (2), Camera Club (3), Home Economics Club (3), Assembly Committee (3).

Mavis is a girl who knows how to make a dull room look bright and how to enliven any conversation. With her sweet countenance and gentle voice, she is sure to make good in her chosen career, nursing. Mavis is also an ardent lover of good music. So we propose a toast to her and wish her success in her career.

CHARLES BENTLEY

77 Hull Street

Class President (3), Football (1-2-3), Captain (3), Basketball (1-2), Hockey (3), Baseball (1-2-3), Captain (2-3), Ping-Pong (2-3), Hi-Y (3), Track (3).

Words can hardly tell the feelings of this class towards Charlie. As president of the senior class, captain of the most successful football team in many years, and a leader scholastically, he has commanded the respect and admiration of everyone. Charlie hopes to enter Brown in September, and we can wish him nothing but the best of life's offerings.

BESSIE CORINNE BERKO

220 Juniper Street

Honor Society, Crimson (3), Basketball (1), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Secretary (2), Property Manager School Play (1), Biology Club (2), Nominating Committee (2), Banking (1), Informer (1-2-3), Assistant Editor (2-3), Cap and Gown Committee (3).

Bessie possesses a very distinguished character. She is conscientious and cooperative in her studies, sincere with all her friends, and, in addition, she has a marvelous sense of humor. Bess always has a pleasant word for everyone. We are sure to hear of her fine scholastic record at college.

DORIS ADELINE BIXBY

65 Sixth Street

Dot has such a friendly and vivacious manner that there are many students who are glad to be called her friends. Although many people do not know it, Dot has long been interested in singing. However, she has chosen hair-dressing as her career, and we know she will be a success in whatever field she enters.

GEORGE WATSON BOURNE

58 Ninth Street

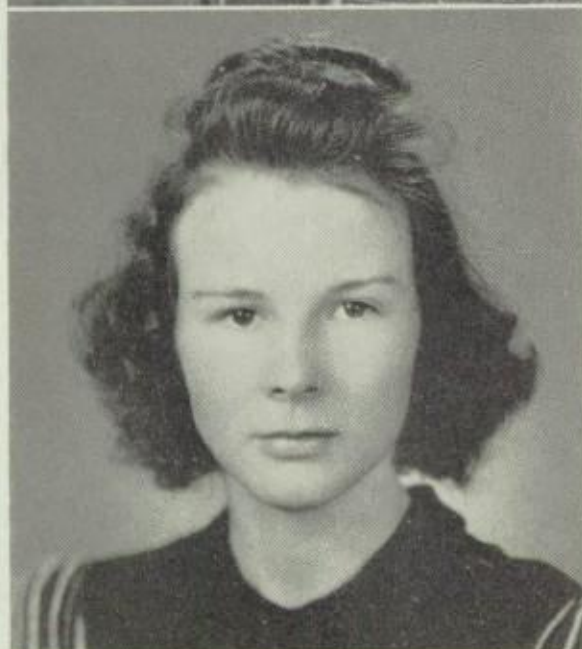

George is one of the popular members of the football team. He can often be seen riding around in Mr. Smith's green terror (the Ford). According to the best authorities he gets more than average marks in his grades. His pleasant smile and genial manner often grace the newly erected Bowling Academy.

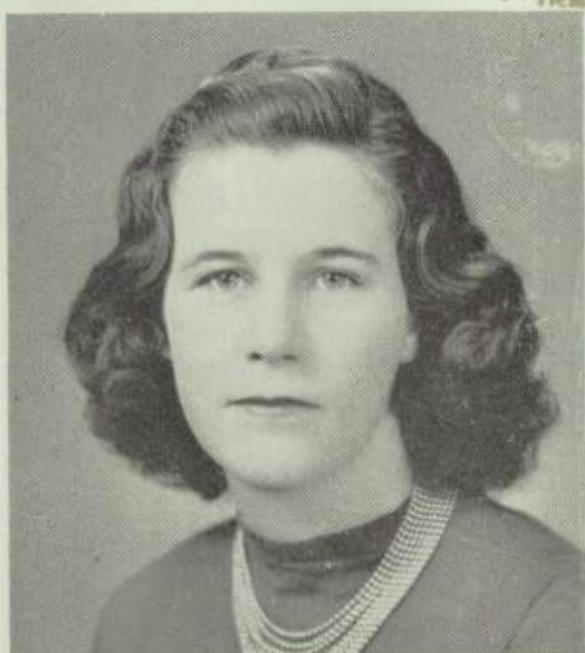

THOMAS BRADFORD BOWEN
90 Greenwood Avenue, Rumford
Wrestling (1-2-3), Hi-Y (2-3).

Tommy is one of those supermen of the wrestling team which has remained undefeated through three seasons. He is also known for his argumentative spirit which frequently presents itself. Tommy has been an active member of Hi-Y and has supported other activities faithfully with a very popular Junior.

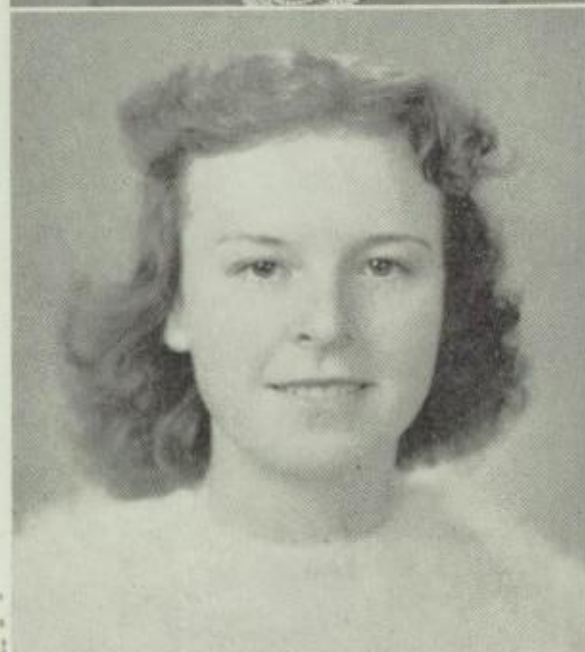

DORIS EILZABETH BOYD
7 Boyd Avenue

Before school begins in the morning one can always find Dot with her companions engaging in choice bits of conversation. Dot's snappy brown eyes and happy grin tell us of her cheerful disposition and light-hearted ways. One rarely sees Dorothy without her side-kicks, Edna and Dot.

ANNA MARIE BRENNAN
1118 Pawtucket Avenue, Rumford

Anna is that pretty brunette who has such wonderful taste in clothes. Besides being a "smooth" dresser, she is pretty and smart. As if these qualities were not enough, she is witty and a good conversationalist. What a versatile gal!

CLARE BRENNAN
168 Grove Avenue

Clare is certainly a striking personality, with her pretty smile and carefree attitude. Her snappy clothes are the source of friendly envy from all the girls. She attends all school functions and is one of our most enthusiastic rooters at the games.

DOROTHEA MARIE BRENNAN

51 Catalpa Avenue, Riverside

Honor Society.

That slim, trim little miss who can most often be found in the art room is Dottie. She is truly very talented, and her creations be-little the Greek goddesses. Besides being an artist of the first degree, she gets good grades, and if you're watching, you can find her name on the honor roll every time.

DOROTHY BEATRICE BRISTOW

34 Mary Avenue

Bowling (3), Informer (3), Golfing (3).

Fun-loving Dot has many friends. Her neat sport clothes have brought forth many a comment from an envious onlooker. Her pleasing disposition and spontaneous gaiety instill merriment in all of her associates. We wish her the best of luck in all that she does.

GEORGE JOSEPH BROWN, JR.

163 Brightridge Avenue

Wrestling (1-2).

Still water runs deep, they say, and so it is with George. He is quiet and unassuming on the surface; but beneath, he has more ability than most of us have given him credit for. We all wish him luck, and we feel sure that he will succeed in any field he enters.

LEROY EDGAR BROWN

41 Whitcomb Road, Riverside

Camera Club (2-3), Secretary (3).

Leroy is one of the quieter boys in our class; but when we do hear from him, he has something to say. In private life he is interested in affairs concerning the Legion. His jovial manners and easygoing ways make him popular with members of the class.

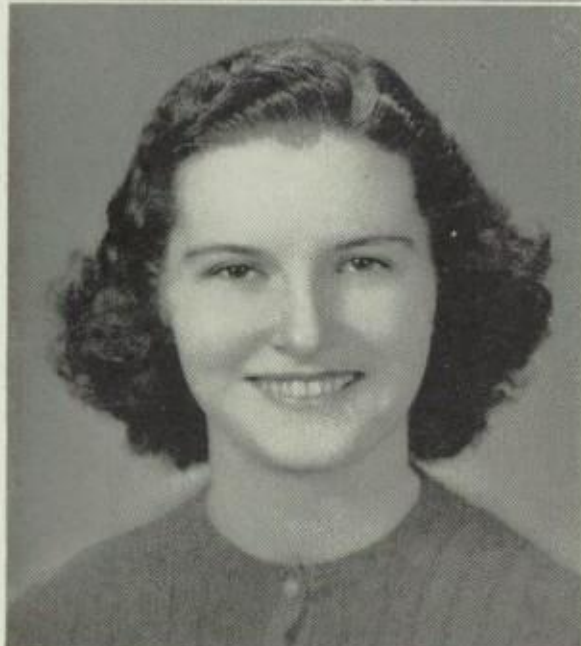

OLIVIA BRUM

19 Henry Street

Honor Society, G. A. A. (2-3), Camera Club (2), Informer (3), Crimson (3).

If no other person in the room knows the answer, Olivia does; for she is an excellent student, never failing to do her homework. Her willingness to help others has made her an active member of the Informer staff and the G. A. A. She has many desirable qualities and undoubtedly will make an efficient and capable secretary.

KATHRYN FRANCES BUCKLEY

97 River Street, Riverside

Quiet, charming, and intelligent—that's Kay. She doesn't have to try to make friends because they just come to her. Kay is a very valuable member of the Library Auxiliary. Kay intends to go to Edgewood Secretarial School in the Fall. Wouldn't you like to have her working in your office?

ELEANOR RUTH BURNLEY

Warren Avenue, Seekonk

Honor Society, Latin Society (1-2-3), Basketball (2-3), Social Committee (3).

Eleanor is smart, attractive, and friendly. She may be quiet in the classroom, but when she gets out—oh boy! During her three years at E. P., she has gained many friends. Eleanor plans to attend Bridgewater College and become one of our future teachers. She is the kind that will be successful.

WINIFRED MARTHA BUTTERWORTH

1830 Pawtucket Avenue

Camera Club (2), Bowling Club (3).

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." This must have been written for Martha because she is a perfect example of a friend. Her witty remarks are heard at the most unexpected moments. Martha plans to go to a comptometer school; so we wish her a great deal of success.

*Good Luck
Martha*

FLORENCE GENEVIEVE CABRAL

107 Hull Street

Flossie is a well-mannered girl. She is thoughtful in all she does. Flossie can usually see the funny side of things, which makes her a cheerful person to have around and a friend worth knowing. Flossie's disposition will make her life a happy one. We wish you good luck and success.

NORMA MAE CAINE

29 Magnolia Street, Rumford

Norma, better known to her friends as Teddy, is a short, chubby bundle of fun and witty sayings. She takes especial delight in using the biggest words, preferably adjectives, that she can find. Teddy hasn't disclosed her plans, but whether her career is domestic or commercial she will have a lot of fun pursuing it.

BEATRICE ANN CALLAN

140 Sutton Avenue

Although Beatrice has fiery red hair, she has neither the temper nor the disposition that go with it. In fact she is probably the mildest mannered girl in the school. It is certain that her pleasant manner along with her many other qualities will take her far.

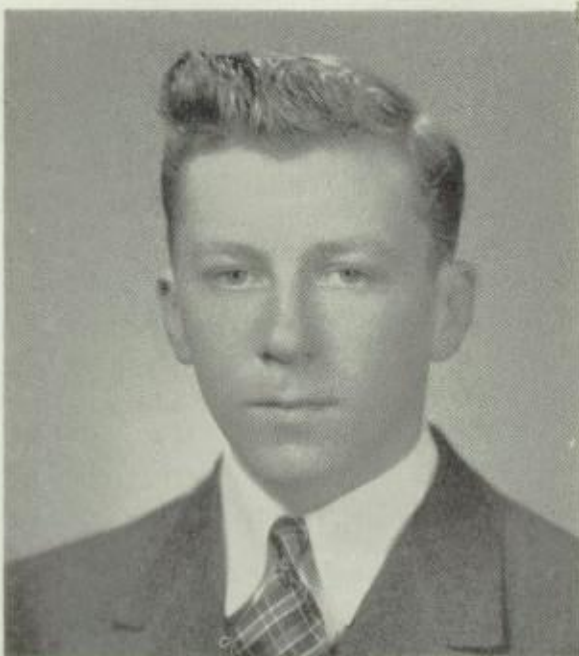

JOSIEF BERNARD CARDONO

163 Allen Avenue, Riverside

Informer (1-2-3), Basketball Manager (2-3),
Nominating Committee (3).

Here is a fellow who always has the right alibi at the right time. Without his clever comebacks our class might have gone astray. But seriously, Joe is a very persevering student and performs what he is told without remark or hesitation. With his intelligence and his ambition he is certain to carry the torch of success.

BERTIL LEONARD CARLSON

381 Newman Avenue, Seekonk

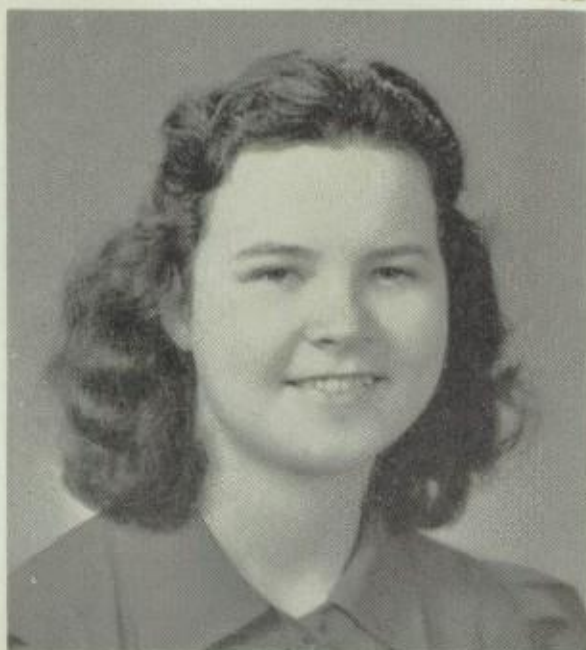

Bert is that little lad who hails from the wilds of Seekonk. You seldom see him without a smile on his face, showing us that with him everything's all right in the world. His humorous remarks in class are guaranteed to brighten even the darkest of dispositions. Best of luck in the future, Bert.

CARL ERIC CARLSON

39 Vine Street

Carl, known to some of us as Swede, is very quiet in class; but the minute the bell rings, he is as much fun as any one else. He intends to go directly into the business world when he leaves us in June. We wish him success in anything that he undertakes.

RUTH AGNES CARLSON

230 Newman Avenue, Seekonk

One would hardly know that Ruthie was around. She is very quiet in the classrooms, but once she gets outside, she is a changed person. Ruthie's friendly manner makes her a friend worth knowing. Ruth would like to be a stenographer, and we know that she will make a good one.

GREGORY PECKHAM CARTER

205 Central Avenue

Track (1-2), Ping Pong (3).

Greg is known and well-liked by all for his quiet, friendly manner and studious ways. He is one of the ambitious members of our class who tried their hands at organic chemistry. (Greg almost cut his hand off!) We understand that he plans to go to Bates College in Maine. Best of everything, Greg!

HARRY WILLIAM CARY

78 Allen Avenue, Riverside

Harry is one of our handsome basketball players. Besides playing basketball, he dances and is now learning the art of being a jitterbug. The fact that he has not let his studies suffer shows that he knows how to do the right thing at the right time. Good luck, Harry!

EDWARD CHARVES

42 Wilmarth Avenue

Here is a boy who, to all outward appearances, seems quiet and reserved. His reticence is decidedly noticeable on all occasions. He intends to join the Navy after graduation. We extend our best wishes to him for smooth sailing.

MARY CHRISTOPOULOS

45 Puritan Avenue, Phillipsdale

Honor Society.

Demure Mary is one of the smallest members of the senior class. She is serious-minded and exacting. She has won liking from her classmates by her pleasant nature. We sincerely wish that all her desires may be granted.

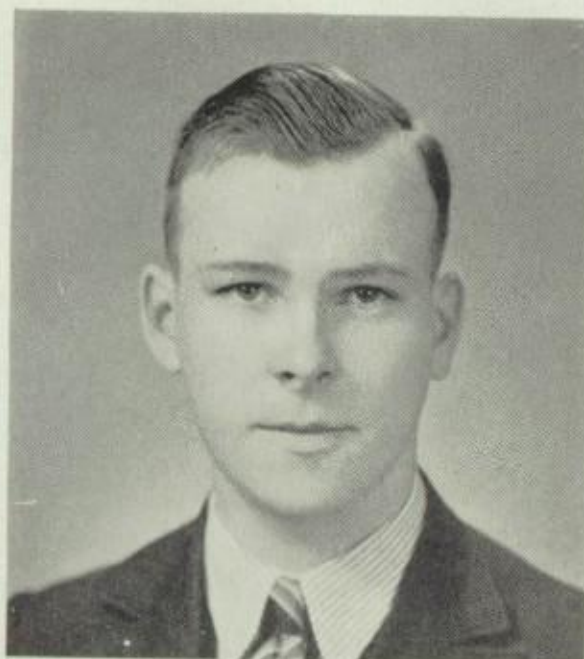

IRENE JEANETTE CLARKE

18 Dartmouth Avenue, Riverside

Honor Society

Irene is that cute little miss, full of pep and vim, who can cheer up even the gloomiest of dispositions. Her scholastic achievements are equalled only by her talent for dancing. Her pretty clothes and her sparkling vigor add to her appeal.

GEORGE RAYMOND COLLINS

21 West River Street, Seekonk

Honor Society

George never says very much, but his friends are well aware of the fact that he knows more than he talks about. He has a fine stamp collection and a more than passing interest in radio. Though not sure of his future vocation, he will, we know, make the right choice and find success.

ISOBEL LARKIN COLLINS

21 West River Street, Seekonk

Isobel hails from Seekonk. She has worked hard and diligently here at East Providence, but she may leave us with the feeling that she has accomplished that which she set out to do. We wish her the best of luck when she enters the business world.

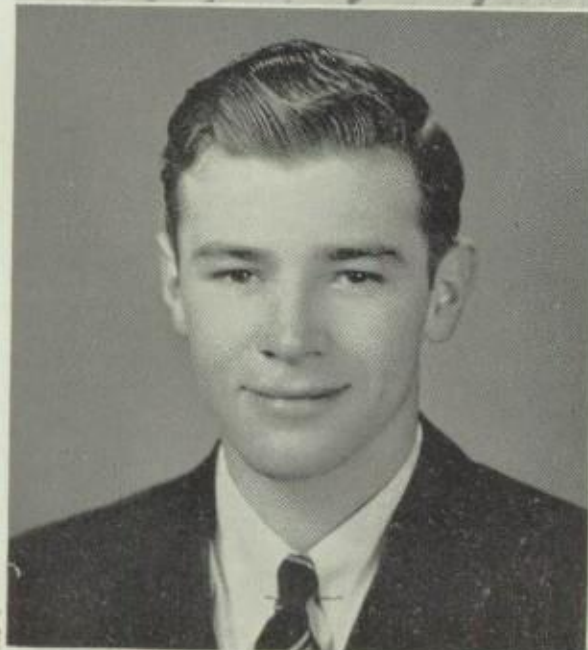

MARGARET COZAD

17 School Street

Bowling (3), Swimming (3), Assembly Committee (2), G. A. A. (3).

Margaret's type composes the quieter, more dependable element of our class. Her friendliness and reliability make her a very popular girl. Margaret's meticulous diction and gracious smile lend her a charm common only to her. This combination of charm and intelligence should carry Margaret a long way in life.

WILLIAM HENRY CRANDALL

133 Burgess Avenue

Good-natured Bill is always surrounded by many of his classmates. His ability as a violinist and an actor should give him a head start in the world. With his friendly attitude he will not find life so hard. Bill is not entirely serious; he is also a lot of fun. We wish you success in whatever you attempt.

ROBERT JOSEPH CREVIER

100 Main Street, Riverside

Bob has a friendly disposition which has gained him many friends here at E. P. He seems rather bashful with the fairer sex, and he actually blushes in their presence! Bob has faithfully attended our athletic meets with his pals from Riverside. Best of luck to you, Bob, on your road to success.

CYNTHIA CROCKER

16 Green Street

Crimson (3), G. A. A. (1).

Hers is the life of a girl bubbling over with vitality. Her sparkling personality and endearing charm are landmarks in E. P. She has a great thirst for fun; but at the same time she never neglects her studies, as shown by her high marks and honors. We feel sure that her life will be filled to the brim with happiness and good fortune.

Charlie
CHARLES EARL CROWSHAW

701 North Broadway

Charlie was given one of the most unpopular jobs in East Providence High, that of being the senior class treasurer; but in spite of this handicap he has managed to become one of the most popular boys in our class. His work on our football team shows that he can get what he goes after in life; so aim high, Charlie.

WILLIAM JOSEPH CUDDIGAN

938 Broadway

Football (1-2), Baseball (1-2).

Bill, the battling hero of the football field! His fine appearance and magic coin tricks make him a joy to know. He is quite an author. Remember "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" in the Jabberwock? Bill devoted his time to one girl only during his last two years, much to the chagrin of the other feminine members of the class.

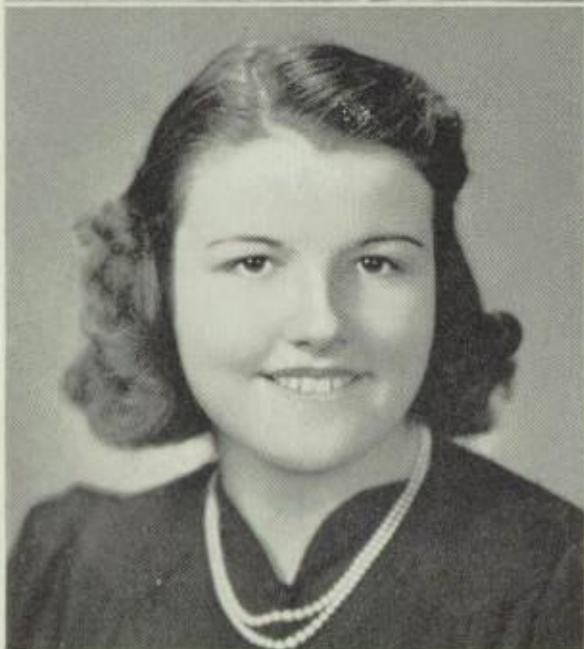

MADELINE ELIZABETH CULLINAN

24 Wilson Avenue, Rumford

Swimming (3), Bowling (3).

Madeline is one of the people who know when to be serious and when to be gay. She is very clever at sewing and wants to have a dress shop of her own some day. Knowing Madeline, we feel sure that she will get it.

VIRGINIA MARIE CULLINAN

24 Wilson Avenue, Rumford

Swimming (3), Bowling (3).

Virginia must be an outstanding example of what ~~one~~ half of a sister act should be, else why should she and Madeline get along so well? They are seen everywhere together. Virginia is liked by all for her pleasing and agreeable manner, and by the teachers, especially, for her studious ways.

RUTH ADA CUNNINGHAM

20 James Street

First Honors, Honor Society, Crimson (3), Informer (1-2-3), Editor-in-Chief (3), Assistant Editor (2), Class Vice-President (2), Nominating Committee (2), Social Committee (3), Cheerleader (2-3), Latin Honor Society (1-2-3), Aedile (2-3), Hi-Tri (1-2-3), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Basketball (1), Swimming (1-2), Baseball (2-3), Senior Play (3).

Ruth is the girl with a personality smile. Almost any time during the day you can see her dashing to some unknown destination to gather up some spicy bit of news to publish in the "Informer." Besides holding the responsible position of editor, she is an excellent student, a cheerleader, and a faithful supporter of club activities.

EARL THOMAS DAVIS

3 Turner Avenue, Riverside

Crimson (3).

Earl's quiet manner has kept him unknown to many people in E. P.; however, his outside activities have gathered for him a host of acquaintances. Especially is he an expert photographer, as proved by his very good candid shots taken at the games. Earl's interests also include sailing. Having left in February, he has already entered the business field, and we wish him great success.

MARY ELLEN DEERING

194 Juniper Street

G. A. A. (1-2-3).

Mary is indeed popular here at school because she is the type that makes friends easily and keeps them. She is athletically inclined and regularly attends all athletic meets with her pal, Phil.

ANTRANIG DER VARTANIAN

80 City View Avenue, Riverside

Antranig is an inconspicuous but very amusing, good-natured, and likeable fellow. His perseverance has won him praise from students and teachers alike, and it is his perseverance that will eventually bring his success. Good luck, Antranig.

HILDA DIAS

25 Raymond Street

Library Auxiliary (3), Informer (3).

Hilda is the type of girl who is sincere and conscientious. Her amiable smile and helpful ways are notable in the things she does. She is well liked for her conservative habits. Hilda's good nature should prove an asset to her in the future.

YOLANDO DICESARE

391 Waterman Avenue

Library Auxiliary (1-2-3), Bookworm (3).

The old adage, "All beauty and no brains," does not apply to Yolando. That she is very ambitious is proved by the fact that she obtained afterschool work as a filing clerk with a reputable firm. With your good looks, ambition, and ability, Yolando, we know you will go far.

EDWARD ANDERSON DIMOND, JR.

58 Dunbar Avenue

Track (2-3), Cross Country (3), Hi-Y (3),
Latin Society (1-2-3).

Here is the boy who can say, "I don't know," with a smile and make it seem all right. Don't take this the wrong way, however; he is always cooperative with his teachers and fellow students. We can truthfully say that he is one person who hasn't had an argument with anyone all through high school.

HELENA THORNE DIXON

28 Harvey Avenue

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (2-3), Informer (3).

Whoever has the pleasure of Helena's friendship is fortunate; for she is a sincere, loyal, and respected person. She is very efficient and capable in her work and excels in her studies. At all times she is ready to do her share. She will undoubtedly be one of the best qualified secretaries that E. P. has produced.

CLIFTON WALTER EDDY

51 Outlook Avenue

Clifton has a mathematical mind, a quiet nature, and an engaging grin. He is never flustered; he takes his time and thinks and thereby attains the best results. He is hard-working and patient, determined to attain a set aim. Eddy believes in practical application and doesn't fritter away his time socially. We know he'll succeed.

ELSIE CHRISTINA EHRENCRONA

230 Central Avenue

Elsie's flawless complexion, golden hair, and bright blue eyes make her a pretty sight to gaze upon. She has a congenial disposition which has gained her hosts of friends here at E. P. As a reward for her conscientious study, Elsie has journeyed out into the commercial world and is already traveling the road to success.

PETER FRED ENGLISH

45 Island Avenue, Phillipsdale

Pete is that good-natured boy with the winning smile and the ability to do anything mathematical. His pleasing personality and unassuming air make him popular with all. They say that "good things come in small packages," and we certainly agree.

SHEILA IRENE ERICKSON

61 School Street

Jo & Sheila
Slim and blonde and with a charming smile for all—that's Sheila. The two-some of Sheila and Jo has been well known ever since their junior high school days. We hope that such a deep friendship won't be broken when they go their separate ways in the world. Sheila is a future nurse, and she is just the kind of person you would want to care for you, if you were ill.

MURIEL FRANCES FAVRO

When Muriel turns her charm on anyone, it is enough to limber up even the most bashful person. With her long curly hair, her winsome smile, and her vivaciousness, she would make a perfect model. We know that she will make good in any career that she chooses.

OLIVE MARGUERITE FELTHAM

232 Central Avenue

Olive is a tall, dark, dignified girl who has wonderful taste in clothes. She came to this school in her junior year and soon endeared herself to everyone. We are glad you came to our school, Olive, and wish you much success.

MARJORIE FLORENCE FISHLOCK

West Avenue, Seekonk

Marge's genuine attractiveness and pleasing personality are sure to win approbation from everyone who knows her. She has gained popularity worthily through her gay disposition, cooperativeness, and friendliness to everyone. With all these qualities, Margie is sure to have a brilliant future.

DOROTHY MAY FISK

9 Russell Avenue

This is Dottie, the girl with naturally platinum blond hair. Her quiet but friendly attitude has been an asset to her throughout her high school life. She had ambitions to be a nurse; but sly, little ole Dan Cupid nipped her ambitions right in the bud; so we wish her the best of everything.

ROSE ROCHA FITTA

85 Ingraham Street

Rose is that dark-haired, demure miss in room 1. She is very ambitious and secretly longs to be a school teacher. Her pleasant smile and friendly ways have endeared her to many. We sincerely hope that you may fulfill your desire, Rose. If you are unable to, we know that you will find success in whatever else you may undertake.

ALFRED FONTES

134 Woodward Avenue

Are you wondering who that attractive, short, dark-haired fellow in room 4 is? Why, that's Al Fontes, known to a few of his classmates as a very quiet lad, but to others as a boy with a fine sense of humor and a mischievous smile. May you continue to enjoy life, Al, and find the success which you deserve.

GERALDINE FORD

40 Armington Avenue, Riverside

Library Auxiliary (1), Latin Society (1-2),
Basketball (3), Crimson (3).

Jerrie is the girl that always welcomes you with a sunny smile and a bright "hello." Her happy disposition and pleasing personality have gained many friends for her. Jerrie's witty remarks chase old man gloom on his way. She is independent and has a sense of responsibility. Good luck in your training at the Homeopathic!

JOSEPH FOUNTAIN

Fall River Avenue, Seekonk

Hi-Y (3), Bowling Club (3).

Behind the quiet reserve of this boy from the South his friends found a ready wit, a sterling character, and an all-round good fellow. Specializing in upholding unpopular points of view in class, he could always be counted on to make the most of any argument. East Providence would be the better for more boys like Joe.

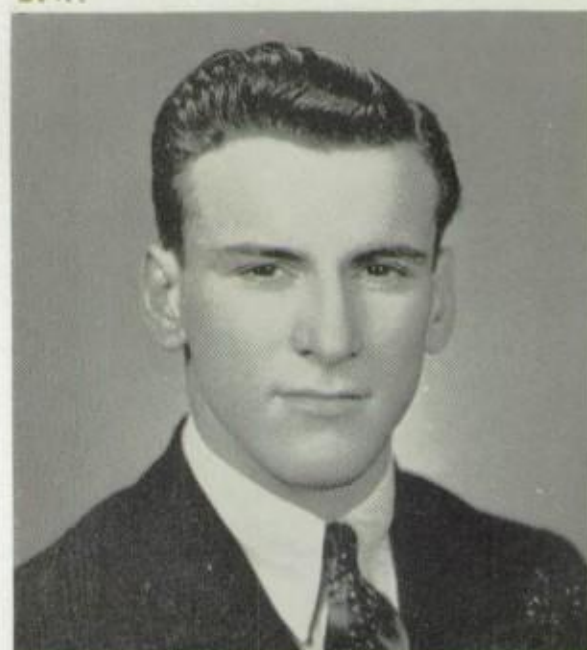

MANUEL FURTADO

384 Juniper Street

Crosscountry (2), Wrestling (3), Track (3).

Manuel is one of our outstanding track and cross country participants. He is also noted for his ability as a wrestler. Manuel is not the kind to give up. He is a pleasant person to have around. We wish him a lot of success in everything he does.

HELEN TERESA GALLIGAN

382 Greenwood Avenue, Rumford

Hi-Tri (2), Bowling (3).

"A tall good looking blonde" describes Helen. One may always find her in the center of a group of friends. Helen always takes cheerfulness with her wherever she goes. In whatever Helen does, we know that she will be successful.

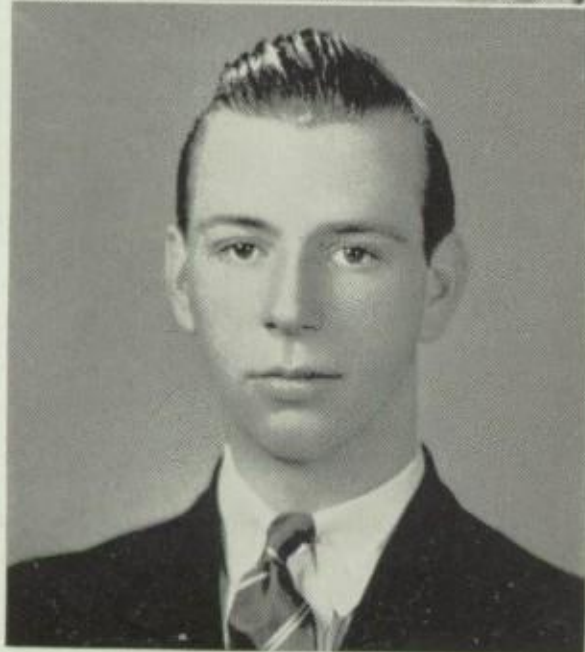

PHYLLIS ANNA GARTNER

69 Sixth Street

G. A. A. (1-2-3), Secretary (3), Bowling (3), Baseball (3), Informer (3).

Phyllis is one of our classmates who have done well in their commercial studies. She is often seen wearing clothes of red or green and they are very becoming in contrast to her jet-black hair. She has a sparkling personality as that twinkle in her eyes shows. We all hope that she will attain her goal.

JAMES FREDERICK GARVIN

70 Dyer Avenue, Riverside

If you should happen to pass by the band room and hear the beautiful, clear, mellow notes of a trumpet, you could be positive that it's Jimmy playing. He has won much praise and recognition for his trumpet playing, and we are sure that much more acclaim is due him.

GEORGE JOSEPH GENNARI

339 Waterman Avenue

George may not be able to twist his tongue around Spanish verbs, but he surely knows how to play basketball. He is usually quiet in class, but he quickly sheds that cloak when the bell rings. We wish George success in any field that he undertakes.

EVELYN ANN GIBBONS

149 Anthony Street

"Gibby" is an addition to any class. She's always in a happy mood, and is one of the friendliest, prettiest girls in our class. She is a hard worker and she gets excellent results. Her effervescent personality has acquainted her with everyone and will probably continue to serve her in years to come. Here's to "Gibby" and her future!

WILLIAM KENNETH GIBSON

95 Greenwood Avenue, Rumford

Hockey (1-2-3), Captain (3), Baseball (1-3),
Social Committee (2-3), Hi-Y (3).

Gib is well known to all the students of E. P. as the outstanding goalie on our hockey team. He and a certain Junior are ardent supporters of all dances and sports events. Well-groomed and well-mannered as he is, Ken is sure to succeed in whatever he undertakes.

FRED BLOMSTER GIFFORD

21 Washburn Avenue, Rumford

Fred is that dark-haired boy who is from Rumford and who is one of the best sea-scouts East Providence High School ever had. He is interested in all school functions. His pleasant smile and unassuming air have won him many friends during his three years here.

IRMA FRANCES GILBERT

15 North Street, Riverside

Irma is the little girl with the rosy cheeks. She is always ready for a good time; and she is also a smiling, good-natured, and sincere friend. When one first meets her, one may find her rather quiet; but after becoming acquainted with her, anyone can have a most enjoyable time.

RUTH IRENE GILLEN

134 Burgess Avenue

Ruth is one of our more reserved students. She is a cheerful companion and is always agreeable. Ruth has probably the lightest, softest voice ever heard in the classrooms of East Providence; however she is not averse to a good laugh. May she have good fortune in her future years.

CARMEL SYBIL JEAN GILLISSIE

116 Ivy Street

Honor Society.

Carmel is one of the more bashful members of our class, but bashfulness doesn't seem to affect her grades since she is a member of the Honor Society. She is always willing to help someone with his studies, and the old adage, "A friend in need is a friend indeed," fits her like a glove.

BARBARA BABCOCK GILLOOLY

287 Dodge Street

Camera Club (1-2-3), Informer (2-3), Library Auxiliary (1-2-3), Secretary (2), President (3), Senior Play (3), Jabberwock (2).

"Original" is the word that describes everything that Barbara does. She is always a welcomed speaker in assemblies and public speaking classes—in fact, almost anywhere. Last fall she could frequently be seen taking pictures at football games. Her humorous and witty remarks are always a source of pleasure for both students and faculty.

DOROTHY HELEN GREENE

125 Sutton Avenue

Dorothy is a quiet, sincere, conscientious person, never failing to do her homework or classwork, nor failing to appear on time. Her neatness and her simplicity show not only in her clothes but also in her work. May the heavens rain sunshine, happiness, and good fortune upon you in the years to come.

RUTH FRANCES GREENE

3591 Pawtucket Avenue, Riverside

Ruthie can always be counted on for fun. Her ability to see the funny side of life will help her over many tough spots in the years to come. Ruth plans to be a telephone operator. Call us up sometime, Ruthie.

VIVIAN MYRTLE GREENE

150 Pleasant Street, Rumford

Basketball (1), Ping Pong (2), Bowling (3).

Vivian is one of the quieter girls who inhabit the lofty halls of good old E. P. Some of her attractive clothes are her own creations. She is seldom seen without a group of friends surrounding her because they like her pleasant manner. She also supports most of the football and basketball games.

RUSSELL GRO CER

16 Sutton Avenue

Russ is one of the best of our "grunt and groan" team and is largely responsible for many of the laurels which the team has gained. He is easily distinguished by his fine appearance and courteous manner. By the way, have you noticed that classy mustache he's been sporting lately?

ESTHER JULIET HAGSTROM

332 Massasoit Avenue

Esther is one of the more retiring members of the class. In her three years at East Providence she has never given her teachers any trouble and has worked conscientiously and well. Her cherry smile has brightened many a classroom.

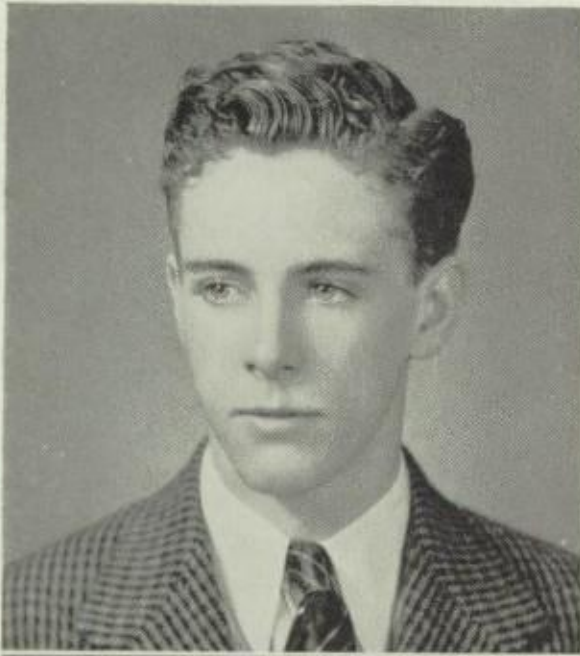

BRIAN GEORGE HALL

164 Wilson Avenue, Rumford

Brian is another of our Rumford athletes. His brilliant defense playing on the hockey team saved E. P. from many sure defeats, and for this he was elected to captain the '39 six. Brian also played center in football. During the last year we have often found him outside Room 1, and we can easily understand his interest there.

*Best of Luck
Herb.*

HERBERT BRUCE HALL

14 North Street, Riverside

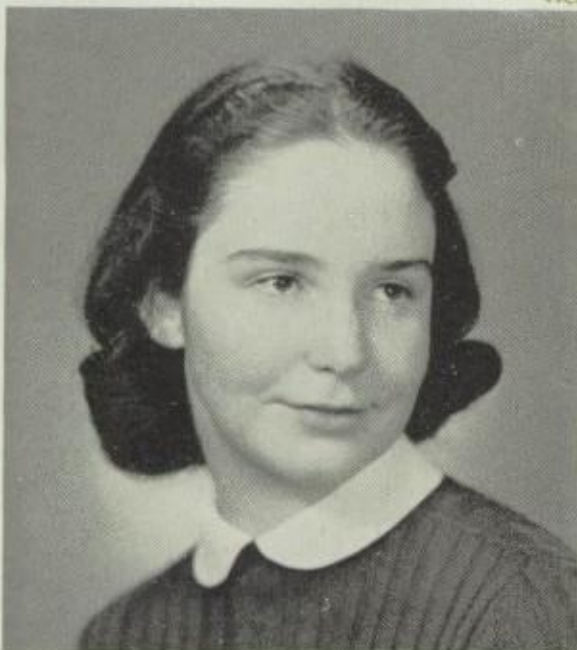

Those curly locks, that shy glance, and that carefree attitude all characterize Herb. He likes a lot of fun and has it. He is a first rate roller-skater, and when it comes to dancing—just ask his tutor! With such a merry disposition Herb will never be lacking in friends or a good time.

ROBERT PERRY HALL

Sherman Avenue, Seekonk

Bob, one of the Seekonk boys, always has a wide grin and a happy "hello" for everyone he meets. He is admired and liked by all for his fine disposition and friendly manner. He is a strong supporter of most athletic contests and can usually be seen escorting some fair damsel to all school function.

ALICIA MARY HARRINGTON

96 Central Avenue

Camera Club (1-2), Informer (2-3), Ping Pong (2), Bowling (3).

Alicia is one of our expert worriers. She worries from one geometry class to the next. She is a very charming person; and although she is usually quiet in class, you could hardly say that her presence didn't affect you in the least. We expect great things from Alicia in the business art world.

EVELYN FRANCES HAWES

51 Arcade Avenue, Seekonk

Evelyn's the small, blonde, boyish type. She's very fond of athletics and is a veritable "whiz" at basketball. She is vivacious, active, friendly, always smiling, and popular. There aren't many girls who can claim athletic prowess and active social participation. What more can you ask of any girl?

JULIA FRANCES HEALY

230 Norton Street, Riverside

Fencing (1), G. A. A. (1), Basketball (2), Swimming (2), Ping Pong (2), Golf (3), Home Economics Club (3), Secretary (3), Chairman of Program Committee (3).

"Tall" blond, and attractive" describes Julia. The question most girls ask enviously when they see her is: Why are some people so lucky as to have such hair? She is present at all school functions and can always be seen as a nucleus for groups of friends.

THOMASENA RITA HEFFERNAN

116 Washburn Avenue, Rumford

Rita is that quiet, demure miss in Room 4. But she does have a talkative streak, as her friends can testify. She is very well liked by all and has attracted many friends with her neat appearance and polite ways. May you find success and happiness in whatever you do, Rita!

CARL MAURITZ HELGERSON

145 Hammond Street, Seekonk

Honor Society, Science Club (1), Class President (2), Crimson (3).

Carl is the strong, silent type; but his quiet manner didn't prevent his becoming our junior class president. He is noted for his brilliant mind and his fondness for studying. Carl wants to go to college to study agriculture or science. Whatever he does, we know that he will be successful.

DOROTHY LOUIS HILL

Smith Street, Seekonk

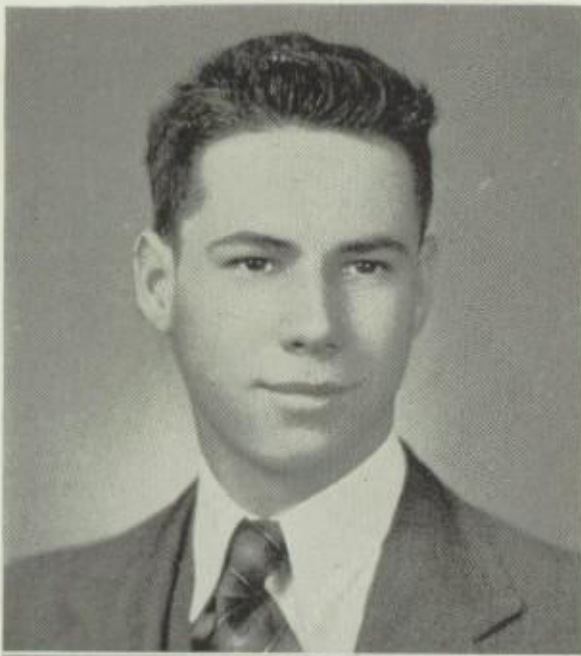

Latin Society (1-2-3), Bowling (3), Basketball (3), Ping Pong (2-3).

Dottie has studied hard and successfully. Her bright smile and friendly disposition have earned many friends for her. If you have ever heard an unusually loud cheer at the school games, it must have been from Dot. She is a faithful attendant at school games. Dot plans to enter Bridgewater College in the fall.

*Best wishes,
Dot*

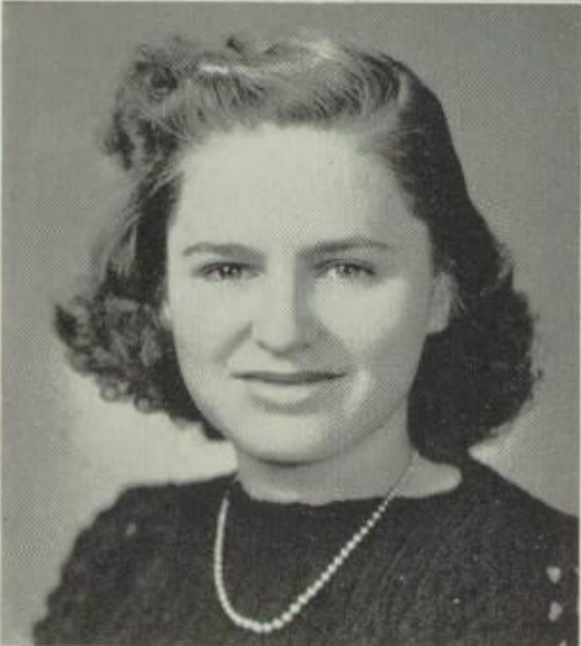

ERNEST HILL

45 Ruth Avenue

Ernest is rather bashful, but he loves a good joke. For three years he has shown himself in deed more than in word a delightful, fun loving friend to many of our outgoing seniors. His love of fun has not interfered with his work, however. We wish Ernest all the luck and good times there are in the world.

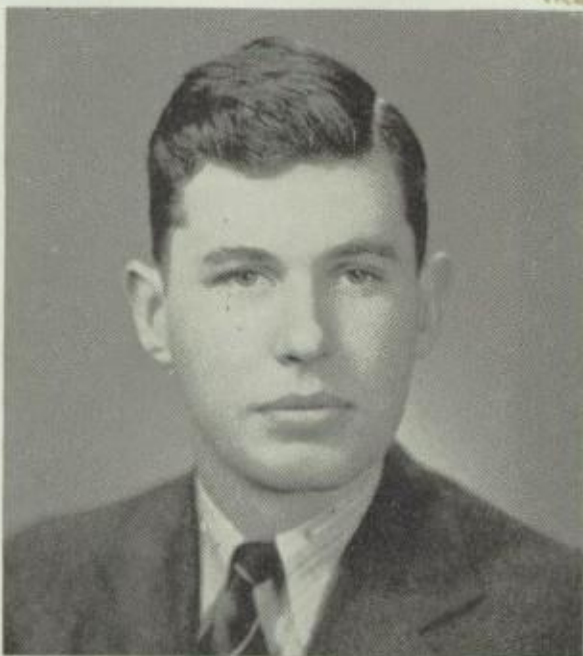

DOLORES MARIE HINES

Dolores 40 Catalpa Street, Riverside

Honor Society.

Dolores is one of the quieter members of the class. She is the girl who frequently comes around with the notices during the last period. In her three years at East Providence she has never given her teachers any trouble. We know that whatever she attempts will be accomplished successfully in the same quiet manner.

HENRY WALTER HONEYMAN

28 Wendell Street, Riverside

Hi-Y (3), Secretary (3), Senior Play (3), Camera Club (2-3), School Play (1), Jabberwock (3).

Henry—wizard of the math classes and a rising chemist—has a colorful career behind him in East Providence. He's a boat enthusiast, too, having navigated his own sail boat along Riverside's rocky shores for years. We all think Henry will do a lot for Cornell!

EVERETT HARRY HURD

68 Toner Street, Rumford

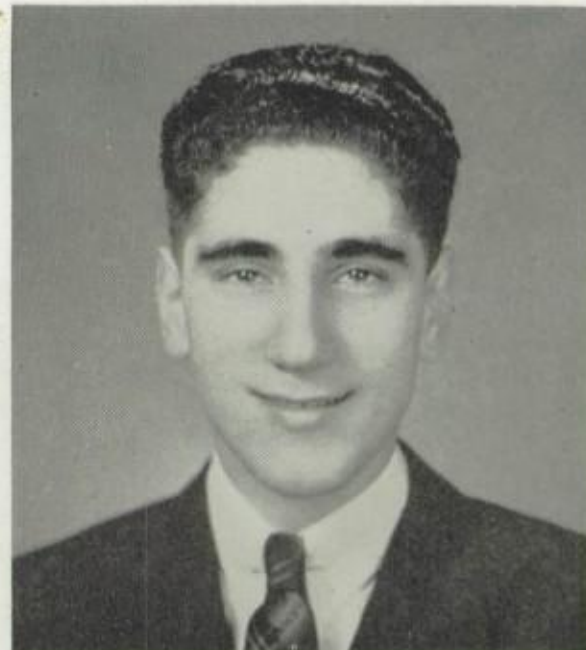

Everett appears to be a serious-minded type of fellow; but when you really know him, you find him always friendly and ready for a good time. He has shown interest in the agricultural course at school and plans to further his education along that line. We know his climb up the ladder of success will be an easy one.

JOSEPH GEORGE JARVIS

202 Warren Avenue

Crimson (3).

Joe is the man with ten thousand jobs to do, and he never seems to know which one to do first. His happy-go-lucky nature and his ability to make friends easily should carry him far in this strife torn world of ours. We hope that whichever job he does take first will prove successful.

EVELYN MARIE JOHNSON

185 Summit Street

Evelyn is one of the quieter girls in the class always seeming to get her work done in complete silence. We understand that she is quite skilled in dressmaking and knitting, two very useful occupations. May success be yours, Evelyn, in whatever field in which you may choose your career!

HOPE GRANT JOHNSON

185 Summit Street

Hope, too, is a very quiet girl, pursuing her studies silently but well. She is sure to succeed in life because of her polite, obedient manner, and quiet ways. Her neat appearance and pretty, blond hair are a joy to behold.

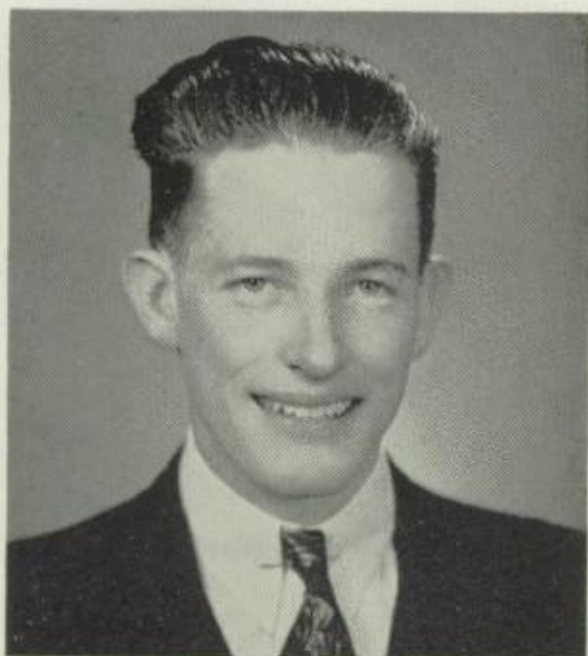

DOROTHY EDNA KAHRMAN

1843 Pawtucket Avenue

Crimson (3), Bowling (3), Latin Honor Society (1-2), Assistant Property Manager Senior Play (3).

Don't be misled by her size. No matter how busy she is, if you are in need, she is a friend indeed. Her smiling face has brightened many a classroom and won her many friends. Next September she plans to enter Homeopathic Hospital where, I'm sure, she will meet with as much success as she has had here. The best of everything to you, Dot.

EVERETT EDWARD KAHRMAN

1843 Pawtucket Avenue

Cross-Country (1-2-3), Track (1-2-3), Hi-Y (2-3),
President (3).

A tall dignified boy with a friendly word for everyone—that's Everett. He, like his twin, Dot, is always willing to help a friend. He wants to go to R. I. State and then to Michigan College to study Forestry. We wish you the best of everything, Ev.

OLIVE ALICIA KAYE

186 Second Street

Olive is the lucky possessor of a low, well modulated, beautiful voice, a pleasing personality, good looks, and ability. During her three years here Olive has proved herself intelligent, ambitious, cooperative, and friendly.

VICTORIA KAYE

116 Second Street

Vicky is that good natured dark-haired girl who is always willing to give someone a ride in her car. She is an enthusiastic supporter of sports and can be seen at all the games. She is a lover of Latin and hopes to teach it someday. To her we extend our best wishes for a successful teaching career.

MARY NORBERTA KELLY

381 Bullocks Point Avenue, Riverside

Honor Society, Crimson (3), Fencing (1), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Treasurer (2), Hi-Tri (3), Debating Society (3), Model Congress (3), Assembly Committee (3), Chairman (3), Nominating Committee (2-3), Social Committee (2), Class Secretary (3), Ping Pong (2), Jabberwock (2-3), Bowling (3), Informer (3), Latin Society (1-2), Banking Council (1-2).

Mary—and clubs. They're almost one and the same. There's hardly a club you can name that Mary isn't an officer in. She's out in front, too, as secretary of our senior class. If she continues in Gibbs as she has in E. P., they'll be proud of her, too!

Frances

FRANCES JOYCE KENNEDY

17 Burton Avenue, Riverside

Frances is blessed with a triple birthmark of wit, vitality, and youthfulness. Her keen sense of humor has branded her as the one to make the long school day seem short and full of fun. Her clever remarks are always enjoyed by the class.

MAXFIELD BURGESS KIRBY

85 Cedar Avenue, Riverside

Basketball (1-2-3), Captain (3), Tennis (3), Baseball (1), Social Committee (2-3).

The crowd roars, and the score board registers two more points as Max again leads the field in scoring honors. His leadership has not been confined to E. P. but to the Class A league as well. Max is a very popular member of our class and has missed very few school functions. We wish Max great success as he enters the business world.

CLAIRE ELLEN KIRKPATRICK

2650 Pawtucket Avenue

Latin Society (1-2), Library Auxiliary (1), Hi-Tri (2), Horseback Riding (1), Home Economics Club (3).

Claire is ever carefree and smiling. Although she isn't much of a "club woman" she is well-known about East Providence. Claire goes in for the lighter side of life and good times. She hopes to enter Rhode Island State College next year, and we all hope that she will continue to enjoy herself there!

CHARLES WILLIAM KNICKREHM

26 Fourth Street

Honor Society, Crimson (3), Informer (3), Debating (3), Model Congress (3).

Talkative, witty, studious, and sociable, Charlie has distinguished himself in our debating team and in assemblies as well as in the classroom, where his frequent, humorous remarks have enlivened many discussions. He plans to attend college and wants to be an author, lecturer, and sportsman. Good luck to you, Charlie!

Luck D

DOROTHY LOIS KNIVETON

3698 Pawtucket Avenue, Riverside

Dorothy is the garrulous type of girl who is always full of pep. When your spirits are low and you need cheering up, she ably comes to the rescue with her keen, enlivening procedure. She readily adapts herself to meet any kind of situation. We hope she will find the happiness which she has helped bring to others.

MARIE SALLY KOCZWANSKI

26 Bishop Street, Phillipsdale

Micky, as her nickname suggests, is very frolicsome and refreshing. She is an enjoyable chum and is truly lively. Her eagerness and enthusiasm have been an inspiration to many of her classmates. Surely she will be welcomed into any field which she may choose to enter.

NINA SONJA KOLNY

29 Victoria Avenue, Rumford

Nina left us in February to begin her training for the nursing profession. With her business-like manner and quiet, friendly ways, she is sure to find success in the medical work she has chosen. We sincerely hope, Nina, that you may find the happiness and good fortune of which you are worthy.

"Success"

EDWINA ELIZABETH KORKUC

386 West Avenue, Seekonk

How would you like Edwina to be your nurse? No doubt you would, because she has a pleasing personality and is friendly. Edwina is going in training at the Memorial Hospital. We know that she will make an ideal nurse. Edwina, we wish you the best of luck in your future work.

HELEN KATHRYN KORKUC

386 West Avenue, Seekonk

The secret of distinguishing Helen from her cousin is to stand them side by side and take the taller one. That is Helen—full of life, fun, and exuberance. The first thing anyone says when asked about her personality is, "She's oodles of fun!"

HELEN THERESA KOZLOWSKI

438 Roger Williams Avenue, Rumford

G. A. A. (2-3).

Helen is the slim small girl with the blond hair. She displays her amiable ways on every occasion. She is helpful and has never been known to create any disturbance. Her fine spirit ought to prove an aid in taking her far ahead in life.

BEVERLY LACY

376 Pawtucket Avenue, Rumford

Beverly is a retiring person who treads the halls of E. P. H. S. with the rest of us, but we understand that she is very friendly and attempts to please everyone. Her naturally wavy hair is envied by everyone who knows her, and her neat and fashionable clothes add to an already attractive appearance.

LAURA BEATRICE LAMB

265 Taunton Avenue, Seekonk

Basketball (2-3), Baseball (2-3).

Laura Lamb is not a so called retiring person. She can always be seen rooting at the top of her voice whenever a touchdown is made by the boys of E. P. H. S. on the football field. And, boys, here's a tip, she can cook and sew—and she likes to!

RICHARD GRAY LAMPREY

69 Eighth Street

Dick is the tall boy with the friendly smile. Judging from the number of periods of agriculture he takes, he must be interested in farming. Farmer, doctor, milkman, or lawyer—we wish him lots of luck.

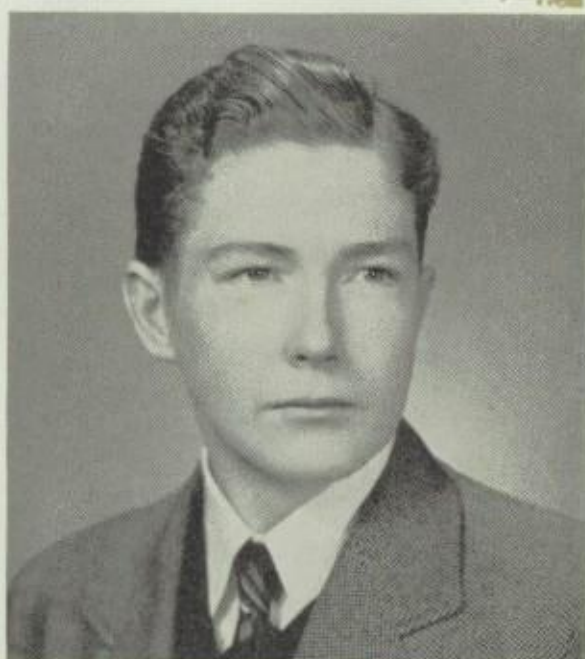

EDA PALDINA LANDI

841 Broadway

Hi-Tri (1-2), Swimming (1-2), Orchestra (1-2-3), School Play (1), Latin Honor Society (1-2-3), Informer (2-3).

Eda is outstanding in our school because of her ability in playing the harp. Not only does she play the harp, but she also studies the classics. She is one of our few fourth year Latin students who still manage to keep their names on the honor roll.

HAROLD VINCENT LARKIN

Cole Street, Seekonk

Harold wasn't behind the door when the brains were passed out. His brilliant mind has solved more than one problem in math that mystified the other students. He plans to go into the field of mathematics after graduation, and we are confident that he will make good.

MARGUERITE MAE LEARNED

Old Barrington Road

Honor Society, Latin Society (3), G. A. A. (2-3), Basketball (2-3).

Everyone likes this sweet and dignified girl. Her twinkling eyes are only one indication of her jovial nature. She has always been a good scholar and thus has been a student on whom both teachers and pupils could rely. Despite her quiet manner, we are sure that she will get ahead in many ways.

SYBIL FRANCES LEVINE

65 Chauncey Avenue, Rumford

Sybil is the owner of a wonderful sense of humor (ask Mr. Browning!) and an infectious laugh. She is always present at athletic contests and lends her ardent support to cheerleaders. With her sunny disposition and amiable ways, Sybil is sure to find success and happiness in whatever she does.

ARTHUR JOSEPH LISTER

65 Fifth Street

Art is that tall, good looking, blushing redhead who is such a wonderful football player. To see him ambling slowly down a corridor, one gets the impression that he is very shy and reserved; but behind that shy manner lurks a sense of humor that can't be beaten, and the proof of the pudding lies in his widespread grin and mischievous blue eyes.

WILLIAM GEORGE LOONEY

925 Broadway

Bill's favorite pastimes are dancing and playing the piano. Whenever a gathering becomes dull, Bill can always be depended on to brighten things up. He is also a good student, for his name frequently appears on the honor roll. This proves that behind his easy-going manner, he has great ability.

EDWARD LEO LYNCH

52 Vine Street

Ed has been working as well as going to school, and this shows us that he is not one to shirk his job. Ed may be quiet in some ways; but, like many other high school boys, his color scheme is not always as quiet. Our wish for him is that he will be as popular with his business associates as he has been here at E. P.

JOHN WESLEY LYONS

18 Read Street, Riverside

Football (2-3), Basketball (2-3), Baseball (3),
Hi-Y (3), Social Committee (3).

There goes Johnnie, the tall, broad-shouldered center of football fame. He came to us in his junior year from St. Andrews School and has made himself an indispensable part of the East Providence scenery. We hope you plow right through the future and come out on top just as you plowed through the enemy line in football.

JOHN FRANCIS MADDOCK

92 Williams Avenue

Johnny's that happy-go-lucky but ambitious fellow who is always surrounded by a host of friends—and admirers. This fact may account for the current song hit "Oh Johnny!" He is one of those meanies who left us in February, and we miss him and his fashionable clothes. He is an excellent dancer and supports most of the school activities.

JOSEPHINE ROSE MAINELLA

26 Mayflower Street

Jo is the shy, pretty girl with loads of personality and clothes. She is a masterful artist and designs many of her own dresses. Jo is planning to continue at Rhode Island School of Design and to enter the field of Commercial Art. Ingenious—artistic—attractive—popular—that's Jo!

Best "Jo"

ROSE MALATIAN

164 Waterman Avenue

Honor Society, Crimson (3), Hi-Tri (2),
Assembly Committee (3).

Always friendly and cooperative, Rose has won many friends here at school. Her neatly groomed, shiny black hair is always admired by her classmates. She has done exceptionally well in the commercial studies, and her name never fails to appear on the honor roll. We feel sure that Rose will make someone a very competent secretary in the future.

ALICE EDITH MALLORY

17 Harvey Avenue, Riverside

Alice is a studious, conservative person, who likes sports of all kinds and who can be seen at most of the games. Rather quiet and serious-minded, she is an A-1 companion; her friends will vouch for that. We hope you will attain the happiness and success you are seeking.

DOROTHY MARTIN

65 Hazard Avenue

Honor Society, Informer (2-3), Assembly Committee (3).

Here we have a very business-like and capable student. By just looking at her, one can easily guess at her efficiency and scrupulous methods of accomplishing her tasks. Dot has often taken part in assembly programs and has been exceedingly helpful to her teachers. She has the best wishes of her friends for whatever work she decides upon.

CHESTER LEROY MASON

22 Kent Avenue

Chet is one of the best dancers in the school and has been an ardent supporter of social functions at E. P. His nonchalant and easy-going manner has acquired for him many friends. Chet's musical ability has already placed him in several outside orchestras as well as in the high school band.

BETTY GUILFORD MASSEY

190 Woodward Avenue

Library Auxiliary (1), Hi-Tri (1-2-3).

When you see a tall serious brunette who is quiet and well-mannered and who always meets you more than halfway, you can be sure it's Betty. She is the friendliest and most unassuming girl in school. We wish you the best of everything, Betty.

HENRY ANTHONY MATHOS

40 Brow Street
Pinafore Chorus (3), All State Chorus (3),
Jabberwock (3).

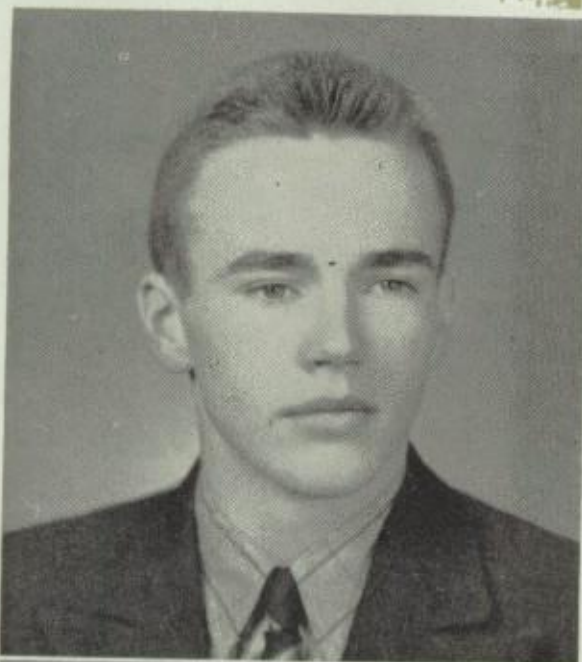

It was too bad that Henry could spend only one year with us. However, in that time his pleasant disposition, outstanding athletic ability, and remarkable tenor voice won him distinction and many friends. Anyone with natural talent like his is sure to go far in any field.

MILDRED McCONAGHY

487 Bullocks Point Avenue, Riverside

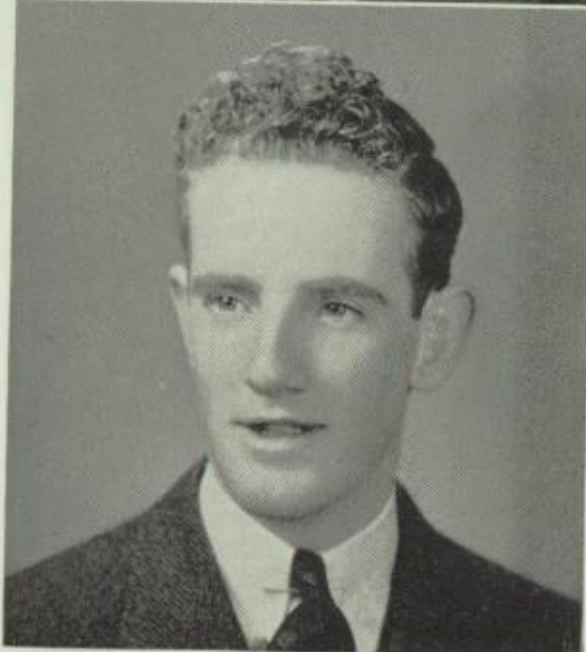

Millie, as her chums call her, is a girl whose friendship is worth gaining. Her congeniality, her sincerity, and her gay laughter add to her charming appearance. She has great ability to comprehend and grasp information quickly, as can be seen by her high scholastic standing. You can assure yourself that in the future you will hear of her success.

EDWARD CHARLES McDONALD

162 James Street

Though he hates to admit it, Edward is known to be a good student, with good ideas and a dry humor. He never backs out of an argument; he always has a good store of information behind him. He aspires to the Navy, and he will no doubt make a fine officer.

EDWARD BERNARD McDOWELL

37 Russell Avenue

Who is that lad rushing to class after lunch, late as usual? Why that's Eddie, one of our class jesters. His brilliant remarks are often the cause of much classroom hilarity. And as for that crop of curly blonde hair, don't you envy him, girls? Lately Cranston seems to have a certain allure for Eddie.

LOUISE FRANCES McGARTLAN
349 Pawtucket Avenue, Rumford
Hi-Tri (2), Bowling (3).

Louise has plenty of spirit as her red hair signifies, but that is what we like about her. She is well able to make up her own mind, and this characteristic will serve to her advantage in later life. From all of us the best of luck, Louise.

PATRICIA IRENE McGOWAN
107 Oak Avenue, Riverside
Hi-Tri (3), G. A. A. (3), Informer (3), Debating Club (3), Social Committee (3).

Patricia is "Pat" to her friends and surely she has enough friends for two people. She is a girl of many tastes, but she especially loves things in the sport line. Dancing, roller-skating, ice skating, and swimming are only a few of her numerous hobbies. We certainly hope you realize your ambition as an interior decorator.

MARGARET ELIZABETH McQUADE
75 Ivy Street

You can always depend on Margaret to pep up a dull party, for her keen sense of humor and sociability give her a sparkling personality to be envied by everyone. She makes friends easily, and this will undoubtedly be an aid to her in whatever she plans to do in the future. Best of luck, Margaret.

EMILY HELEN MEDEIROS
163 Lincoln Street, Seekonk

If silence is golden, Emily must be a multi-millionaire because she speaks only when spoken to or when what she has to say is of importance. Her kind is few and far between; consequently we certainly appreciate her. Also, empty vessels make the most noise. This old adage is proved by her, too, inasmuch as she is not only a quiet person but an extremely brilliant one.

VIRGINIA RITA MERRILL

40 Orchard Street

Assembly Committee (3).

Virginia, the girl with jet black hair and eyes, is one of the more serious minded members of this year's graduating class. Her neat appearance and her gentle, lady-like manners should help her to attain her goal. We wish her the best of luck in whatever she may attempt.

*Lots of luck
- Success
Virginia*

SHIRLEY CANFIELD MESSINGER

213 Waterman Avenue

Second Honors, Honor Society, D. A. R. Award, Editor Crimson (3), Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Vice-President (2), President (3), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Basketball (1), Swimming (1-2), Baseball (2), Social Committee (3), Senior Play (3), Latin Honor Society (1-2-3), Vice President (3), Cheer-leader (2-3).

An actress of no little ability, a vigorous cheer-leader, an active supporter of several clubs, a faithful dance goer, an outstanding leader, and to top it all, an A-1 student! All these attributes hardly describe Shirley as the vivacious, impulsive, popular, charming person that she is. We sincerely wish her luck in her studies at the College on the Hill.

*Shirley
Shirley*

KENNETH BOWEN METCALFE

65 Bishop Avenue, Rumford

Hi-Y (3), Senior Play (3)

Ken's performance as Bill in the senior play will not soon be forgotten, for he was most aptly cast. Ken's liveliness and spontaneity have made him one of the most popular members of the class. As a football player, Ken played ably in the backfield. Success to you at Colby, Ken.

Ken's performance as Bill in the senior play will not soon be forgotten, for he was most aptly cast. Ken's liveliness and spontaneity have made him one of the most popular members of the class. As a football player, Ken played ably in the backfield. Success to you at Colby, Ken.

HELEN FRANCES MILLER

40 Jackson Avenue, Riverside

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Treasurer (3), Library Auxiliary (1-2-3), Bookworm (2-3).

It is hard to find an adjective to describe Helen. She is one of the most charming and attractive girls in our class. Her youthful complexion and beautiful black hair are the envy of many. Helen is also a wonderful dancer, and she and a certain other dancer are seen together at all the social functions.

VIRGINIA FLORENCE MILLER
149 Providence Avenue, Riverside
Library Auxiliary (2-3).

Virginia has been very much interested in the school library and has assisted Miss Hill in many ways. She does well in her studies and is very cooperative. To a careless observer she seems quiet, but her friends realize how truly full of fun she is. We have certainly enjoyed having Virginia as one of our classmates.

DOROTHEA ELIZABETH MONIZ
14 Lyon Avenue

Dot always appears bright and smiling. She rarely lets fun pass her by, but at the same time she manages to get creditable marks in her studies. She is very sociable and has many friends. We all agree that it is a pleasure to know her.

LEONARD MIRWIN MOURA
18 Hazelwood Avenue

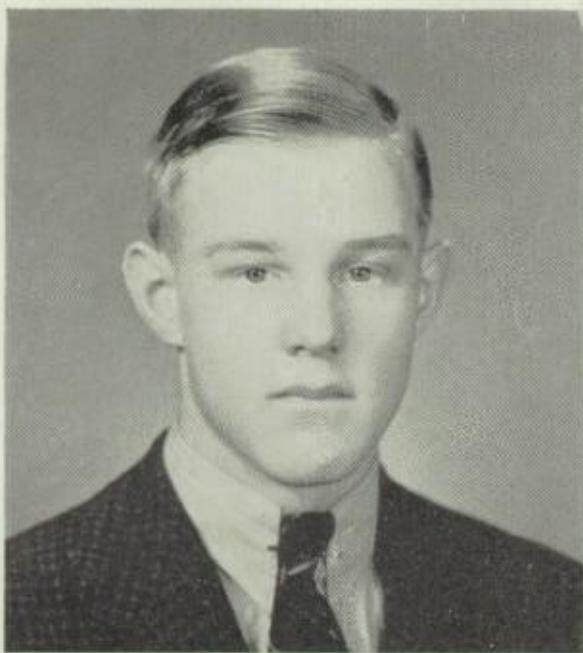

Lenny is a boy whose sole ambition is to be captain of his own boat. He knows more about nautical instruments and paraphernalia than do any two sailors put together. His quiet attitude on the surface doesn't cover up his liking for fun and mischief. Ship ahoy, Lenny! Barnacle Bill hasn't anything on you.

MARY ELLEN MULVANEY
26 Crescent Avenue, Riverside
Basketball Manager (3), Baseball (2-3), Bowling (3), G. A. A. (3), Ping Pong (3).

Mary is well known as the very athletic member of our class. Her achievements in softball and basketball have been numerous and well-earned. All these have made her an active and valuable member of G. A. A., and her sportsmanship has made her very popular and a loyal friend.

ARLON HOPKINS MUNRO

184 Ivy Street

The tall bashful blond that one sees walking along the corridor is Arlon. He is a talented young man treading the road to success. Arlon is a member of the band, but he is also one of our outstanding art students. His disposition makes him a friend worth knowing.

MATILDA HELEN MURPHY

186 Orchard Street

Basketball (1-2).

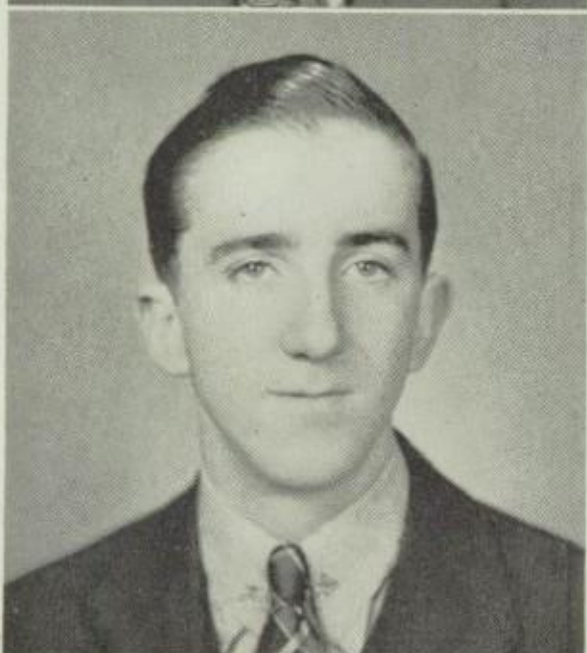

Tillie is that neat little girl who can very often be found with her small nose in a great big book. Besides liking to read, she likes very much to dance. Her neat, fashionable clothes are her own creations. We sincerely wish her luck in whatever field in which she decides to cast her lot.

ROBERT EDWARD MURPHY

60 James Street

At first glance Bob seems to be of the serious-minded type. But don't let this first impression fool you, for although he is conscientious in his studies, he is as ready for fun as the next fellow. Bob has expressed his desire to enter the teaching profession, and we all wish him the best of luck in this field.

FRANCIS JOSEPH NELEN

80 Waterman Avenue

Francis is that little lad who always greets you with a smile. He has a grand disposition which not even the dullest person could offset. This quality has won him many friends. Best of luck to you, Francis, in whatever you plan to do in the future.

LURA NEWTON

30 Gurney Street

Honor Society, Crimson (3), School Play (1), Banking (1), Bowling (3), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Ring Committee (3), Assembly Committee (3), Business Manager of Operetta (3), Property Manager of Senior Play (3), Jabberwock (3).

Lura's pleasing personality and refreshing humor have gained her many new friends and have been a source of unending enjoyment to her host of old ones. She has great poetic ability, and her artistic posters have added interest to many school activities during the past three years. We hope Lura may realize her ambition of becoming an art teacher.

ANNA MARY NOONAN

162 Juniper Street

Anna is one of our quieter girls, but she seems to have a happy disposition and the usual number of friends that go with it. We understand that she is very fond of reading, and she can often be seen very much engrossed in a large thick novel.

HOWARD NUTE

171 Second Street

Howie appears to be one of the most easy going members of our senior class, but his good marks disprove this. His ability to read for pages on end without raising or lowering his voice astonishes the English class, but he goes on blissfully unaware of the havoc he is raising with the works of some of our best known poets and authors.

CLARE ROBERTA O'CONNELL

181 Warren Avenue

Tall, dignified, pretty, friendly, fun-loving, and energetic are not vivid enough words to describe Clare. Many of us students will long remember pleasant hours spent with her. She has a rare ability of making one feel at home. We wish you success, Clare.

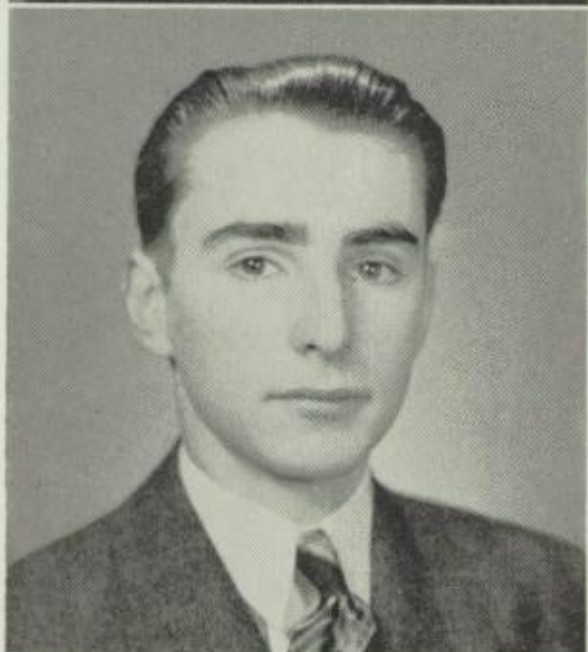

ELIZABETH FRANCES O'DONNELL

43 Anthony Street

We all remember Elizabeth as one of the sisters, cousins, or aunts in the operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore." After graduation she plans to enter the business world. In this we wish her all the success possible.

DONALD OHANIAN

214 Sutton Avenue

Honor Society, Hi-Y (3), Latin Society (1-2-3).

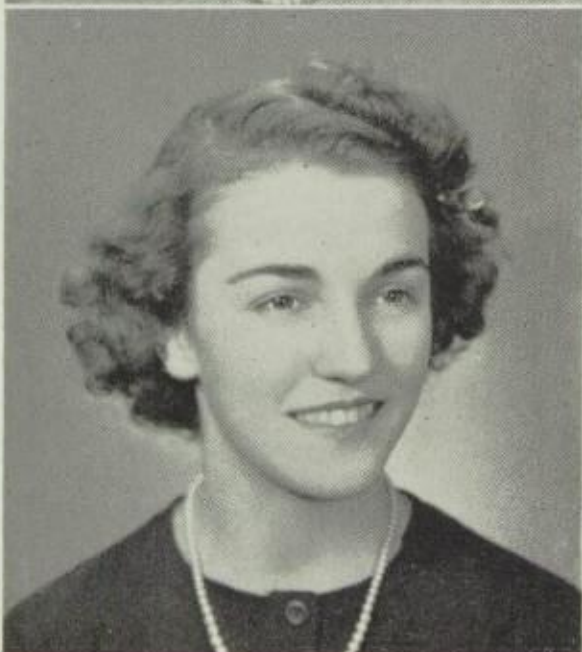

O'Hanian—the boy of the happy smile and the brilliant mind. No matter the class—no matter the topic—he'll always come through with the correct answer. His whole career as a doctor has been planned and laid out. O'Hanian is no glamour boy, but he'll go a long way in life if he continues as he has in E. P.

MARTHA JANE OHSBERG

49 Magnolia Street

Who is the attractive blond in room 5? Why, don't be absurd! Everybody knows Martha. She is admired for her friendly good-nature as well as for her good looks and attractive clothes. She is seldom seen without her friend, Audrey. We are sincere in wishing her the best of luck in her every undertaking.

BETTY JOAN OWENS

24 Ruth Avenue, Phillipsdale

Crimson (3), Assembly Committee (3).

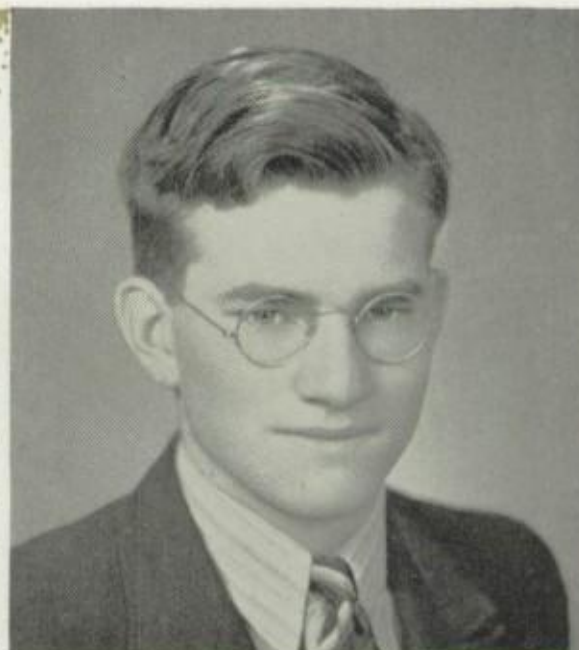

Betty is the girl who is very much interested in all sports and outdoor activities. She is a strong supporter of athletic contests and is usually found at the social functions as well. She has won many true friends with her pleasant disposition and her cheerful ways. Best of everything, Betty!

ROBERT FRANCIS PARTRIDGE

9 Tallman Avenue

Cross Country (3), Track (2-3).

Quiet, unassuming, Bob nevertheless has many good friends. He is very good-natured, and seems to have a perpetual smile on his face. Though not an especially brilliant student, he apparently understands his subjects well. His affability and his quiet efficiency should help him to find his position in life.

ANTHONY PATALANO

504 Warren Avenue

Senior Play (3).

Patalano could certainly never join the "Grouch Club" because he is one of the happiest fellows in our school. Debating is his hobby, one that he pursues constantly. Many of his fellow students will remember in after years classes made more entertaining by his arguments. We wish you luck, Pat.

ROBERT EDWARD PEEL

3301 Pawtucket Avenue, Riverside

Band (1-2-3), Informer (1-2-3), Senior Play (3), Chairman R. I. Band Festival (3), Jabberwock (2-3).

Bob is that fellow with the dry wit and the wonderful sense of humor. He is known to all the students of E. P. as the writer of the "Talk of the Townies" in the Informer, and as the famous Confuscus of Jabbawock renown. He depicted that masculine "Calamity Jane" in the senior play, "Henry Aldrich." We hear that Bob plans to continue his writing after graduation. Best of luck, Bob.

CLAUDIA MARIE PERRY

204 Lancaster Street, Seekonk

Claudia really possesses the ability to do what is required by circumstances. She is upright, earnest, and energetic. Whatever she does, she does well. As she goes on through life, Claudia will no doubt make use of the knowledge she has obtained in high school and will make it her guidepost.

ANNE MARIE ELIZABETH PETERSON

28 Ruth Avenue, Rumford

Nominating Committee (2), Social Committee (2-3).

Anne is that tall, well-dressed blonde who is seen alighting from the Phillipsdale Special each morning. Although she has not taken part in extracurricular activities, Anne has gained many friends through her pleasing personality. Anne plans to enter the business world, and we feel sure that she will prove an able and dependable secretary.

RUTH ELIZABETH PETERSON

13 Massasoit Avenue

Ruth and her friend, Tilly, are always together. Ruth has made many friends here at E. P. with her vitality and her "full of pep" nature. She is sure to be the life of every party she attends. Keep up the good work, Ruth, and always be two laps ahead of the rest of the world.

FLORENCE MAE PHILLIPS

27 Phillips Street

Cap and Gown Committee (3), Nominating Committee (3).

Florence is the girl with the wonderful brunette hair and the fashionable clothes. Her attractive smile has brightened up many a classroom. At present she is undecided as to whether she will attend business college or a hairdressing school.

GORDON WRIGHT POULTON

2486 Pawtucket Avenue

Gordon never seems to have a care in the world. In his own nonchalant way, he brightens up many a dull disposition. He is a true genius at the piano, as he has ably displayed at assembly programs. Although he is inclined to take things lightly, we feel sure that soon he will realize the serious side of life.

VIRGINIA MAE PRIOR

162 Newport Avenue, Rumford

Here we have a serious, rather reticent girl, who, we all know, is quiet during school hours. She is trustworthy and respectful and acts accordingly at every opportunity. She is liked because she is unobtrusive. We hope to hear of her success in her future tasks.

CLARA MARY PROVAZZO

Fall River Avenue, Seekonk

Clara is attractive, dark, quiet, and serene. She is industrious and serious, yet sociable and merry at the right moments. Her quietness and unobtrusiveness in class make her appreciated by her teachers, and her gayness and talkativeness out of class make her popular with her friends. Here's to Clara—we know she'll make good.

RUTH PULLIAM

132 Allen Avenue, Riverside

Ruth is a grand sport, one you always like to have around. Her ever-present smile and cheerful manner make many friends for her. Although she plans a business career, her friends have an idea (based on well known facts) that she will choose that of homemaker; but it is certain that she will be a success in any field.

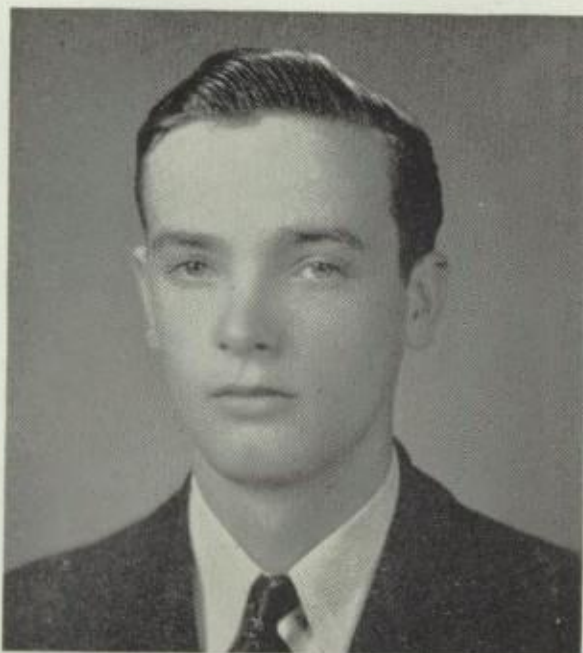

MARGARET CATHERINE RAFTERY

49 Summit Street

Margaret is a quiet girl with a friendly personality. Her red hair typifies a fun loving person. Margaret is always welcomed wherever she goes. One can always be sure of being greeted with a cheery "hello" and a sweet smile. Margaret, may success always travel with you.

HAROLD MILTON RAY

Wampanoag Trail

Harold is a fellow who knows the time and place for work and play. He is a quiet student; and, with a little effort, he usually makes a good showing. We are sure that he will exert his effort to the utmost to attain the goal he has set before him.

GLADYS ARLENE RENEY

26 Kent Avenue

Gladys, the girl with the beautiful hair and the stunning clothes, is admired by both boys and girls alike. You will be sure to find Gladys at any and all school functions. Reports from Kent's Pond state that Sonja Henie has an up-and-coming rival in this young miss!

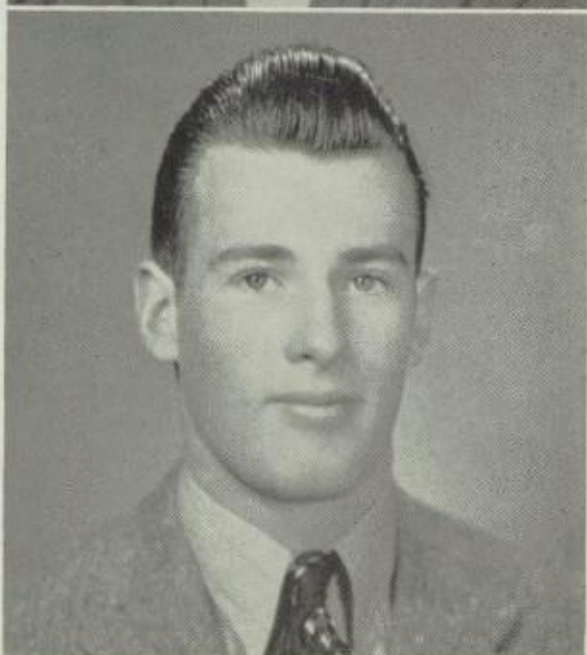

ROVENA RENZI

199 Pawtucket Avenue

Informer (1-2-3), G. A. A. (2-3).

Rovena will greet her acquaintances at any time of the day with that same sweet smile. She has worked hard during her stay at high school. Her attempts have not been fruitless, and her pals are glad for her. We wish her an enjoyable and eventful life.

HOWARD JOSEPH REYNOLDS

39 Breeze Avenue

Tall, smooth haired, well dressed, and handsome—that describes Howard. He is an enthusiastic sports fan and enjoys much popularity. These assets plus his scholastic record make him an outstanding member of our class. We expect to find that someday he will fill a high ranking position.

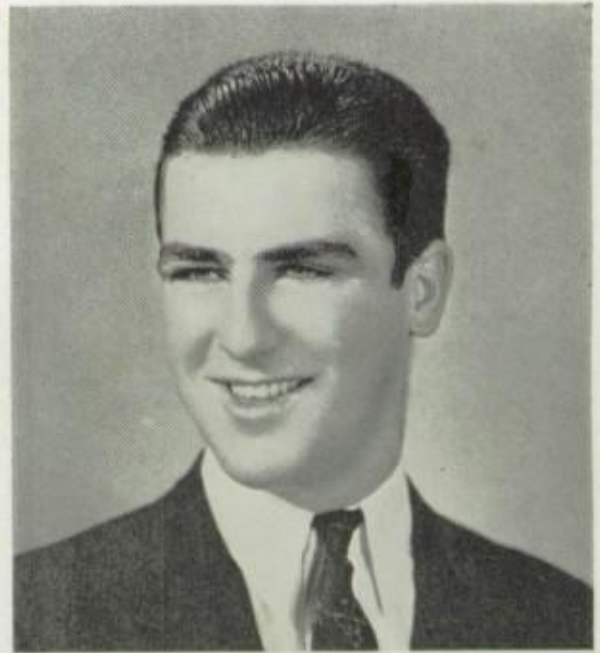

R.B.

PAUL BUNTING RICHARDS

66 Aberdeen Road, Riverside

Bus Monitors (2), Cap and Gown Committee (3).

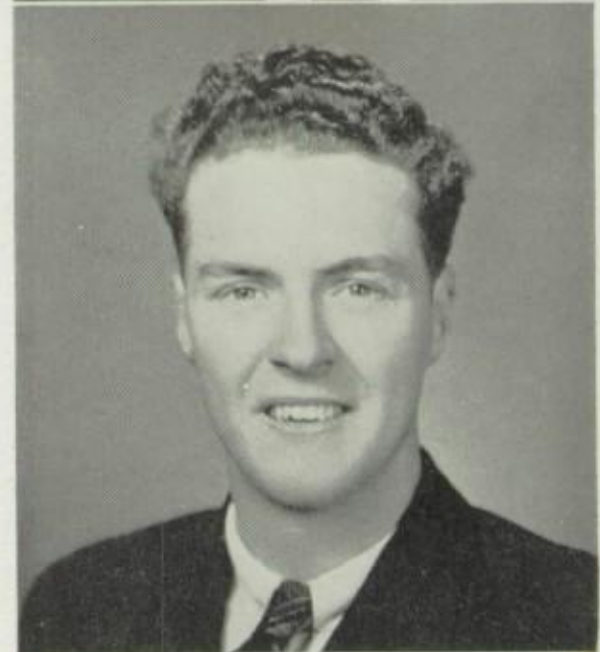

Richards has been a high light in East Providence a long time now. The school will seem rather tame and dull without his pranks and humor. He can always twist a serious situation into a hilarious comedy. Wherever he goes next year, Richards will make that school merrier and livelier by his presence.

WALLACE RICHARDSON

595 Fall River Avenue, Seekonk

Wally left us in February and we are sure that the band has missed his fine clarinet playing, for he played in this organization during the whole of his three years here. His erect posture is the pride and joy of a certain member of the faculty. Although Wally has steered clear of the feminine element thus far, he has made many friends among the boys.

EDWARD RENE RING

34 Prospect Street

School Play (2), Baseball (2), Senior Play (3).

Eddie is one of our most likeable and well-known students. As he strolls down the corridor, his gay manner acts as a magnet, drawing all his friends around him. He has a way with everyone, even with the teachers. We wonder how E. P. will get along without him.

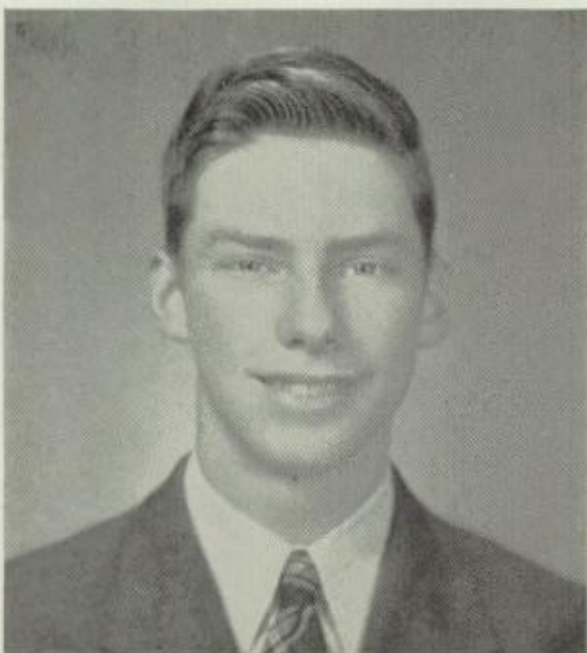

FRANK CHARLES ROBALISKY

242 Sutton Avenue

Frank, the tallest boy in town, or at least in good old E. P. H. S.,—that's what the whole class voted him in the superlatives. He is a great bowling enthusiast and his scores prove his skill. May everything that he does in the future prove as successful as his bowling.

KENNETH EARL ROBERTS

118 Terrace Avenue, Riverside

Kenneth is an excellent student in chemistry and in all forms of higher mathematics. He is of the type that doesn't give up easily but pursues a problem until he has a satisfactory solution. May you have the same enduring perseverance all through life.

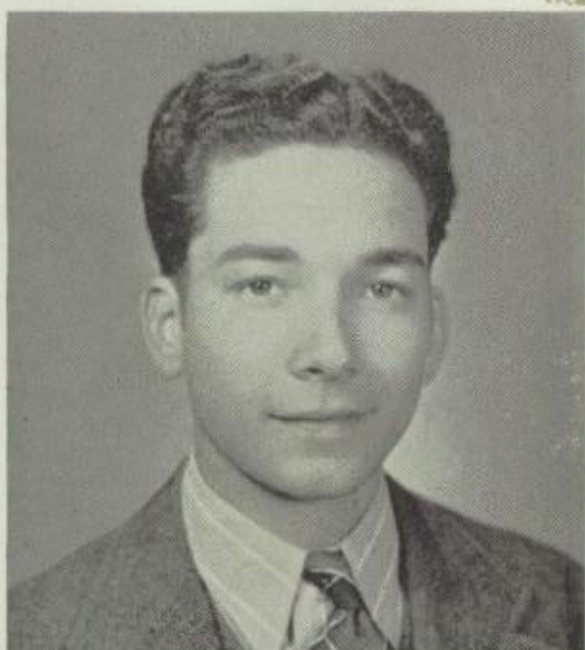

LOUISE ELLEN ROBINSON

16 Wendall Street, Riverside

Hi-Tri (1), Latin Society (2), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Ping Pong (2), Swimming (1-2).

Here is a girl whose friendliness, sympathy, and congeniality are her highest assets. She is always glad and willing to help others and ever ready for fun and sports, at the same time keeping a high record in her studies. She is interesting to talk to and is an all-round good-natured person.

CHARLES ROCHA

65 Martello Street

Charles is a quiet, reserved lad, deliberate and precise. Besides being an excellent skater, he is interested in music and has a fine bass voice. Although he is bashful where girls are concerned, he has many lasting friends among the boys. We certainly expect him to make good after graduation.

IRENE CAROLINE ROONEY

34 Burton Avenue, Riverside

Crimson (3), Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Picture Committee (3), Banking (2).

Irene is easily recognized by her cheery smile and friendly manner. Her attendance at any of the school activities is always greatly welcomed. In addition to all her charm, she makes the honor roll each month. To further her ambition for a business career, Irene plans to enter Gibbs, where we are sure that she will meet success.

WALTER EUGENE ROONEY

34 Burton Avenue, Riverside

This handsome idol of the fairer sex is none other than Walt. He has great musical talent both on the piano and the accordeon, and his acting ability has been very well displayed in the senior play. In addition to all this, he is an all-round good fellow, popular with both boys and girls. He has a way with the teachers, too! With all these qualities he is sure to come out on top.

MARY TERESA RUGGIERO

82 Apulia Street

Mary is one of the deceiving members of our class; on first appearance she seems to be rather quiet and retiring, but when you get to know her better, she is more fun than a barrel of monkeys. She never gets into any trouble with her teachers which proves that she knows that there is a time and place for everything.

EDWARD CHARLES RUTH

35 Miles Avenue

Eddie has not been an active participant in extra-curricular activities at E. P., but we know that his interests are centered in De-Molay. In his order, Eddie was elected Master Councilor, and the responsibilities of this leadership show the great trust his friends place in him.

ETTA CAROLINE RUTLEDGE

65 North Broadway

G. A. A. (1-2-3).

Vivacious, optimistic, friendly—these are only a few adjectives that describe Etta. She has been a very active member of the G. A. A. during her stay here at E. P. Her efficiency in the business world has been proved by the fact, that, since she left us in February, she has secured an office position. Best of luck to you, Etta.

KENNETH LAWRENCE RYAN

126 First Street

Ken is that dark, attractive lad in Room 6 who has managed to maintain a studious existence during his three years here at E. P. H. S. Although he appears quiet and reserved, those who know him well state that he is as rollicking and talkative as anyone you can name.

MADELINE GLADYS RYAN

86 Taunton Avenue

Crimson (3), Basketball (1), Baseball (1), Ping-Pong (1), N.Y.T. (1-2), Ring Committee (2), Informer (3), Senior Play (3).

Who is this dashing dark-eyed girl one sees in the corridor? None other than Madeline. Madeline is not the kind that gives up; she usually gets what she goes after. She is friendly in all respects. A happy-go-lucky girl such as Madeline will never run into dangerous difficulties. Good luck in whatever you do.

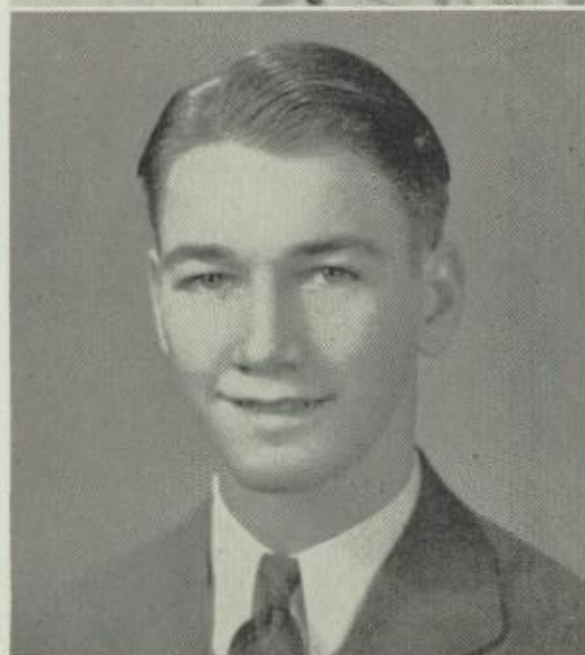

ANNA GRETA SAMUELSON

61 Magnolia Street, Rumford

Bowling (3), Senior Play (3).

Anna is that pretty blond girl who is always so friendly and helpful. Her maternal instincts were expressed in the senior class play, "What a Life" when she played the part of Henry Aldrich's mother. Anne's aptitude for learning, cooperating, and being agreeable should take her far.

RUSSELL ALBERT SANDAHL

21 North Street, Riverside

Rut's pleasing manner, good-looks, and athletic achievements combine to make him extremely well-liked around E. P. He played hard as guard on the basketball team, and the track team has profited by his pole-vaulting. Rut's ever-present grin has brightened many peoples' blue moods.

*Best of Luck
Fred*

FRED JOHN SHANLEY

31 Gurney Street

Football (1-2).

Fred is the jovial lad that brightens up our corridors day after day. His twinkling eyes and quiet smile have made him a favorite with both teachers and students. Fred hasn't disclosed his future plans; we think that he is going directly to work. Good luck, Fred.

CHARLES HENRY SHAW

34 Read Street, Riverside

Presenting that suave, nonchalant gentleman whose good looks and whose calm and unruffled manner make him the best bet of the season! He's just a carefree boy from out Riverside way. But who knows? Perhaps in ten or fifteen years he will have reached the top of the ladder of success. We sincerely hope you do.

*Best of luck
Charlie*

LAURA ELLEN SHAW

7 Judkins Street, Rumford

Laura's cheery "Hello" shows her whole aspect of life. Her merry spirit and shrill laughter have brightened many dull classes and dreary study halls. Laura has been a very faithful helper in the office and she plans to further her business studies at Edgewood Secretarial School.

*Best of Luck
Laura*

CAROLYN ANN SHORT

1266 South Broadway

Crimson (3), Swimming (1-2), Senior Play (3), Jabberwock (2), Debating Club (3), Debating Team (3), Model Congress (3), Ping Pong (2), Camera Club (1-2).

Kay's activities at E. P. have been numerous and varied. As a debater, an actress, and an artist, she has excelled; and her interesting stories have been enjoyed by all Informer readers. We seldom find Kay missing at school functions and never without a group of friends. Our good wishes for success go with Kay as she continues her studies at the College on the Hill.

Kay

WILLIAM EDWARD SLOANE, JR.

Field Street, Seekonk

Sloane is one of our potential Gutenbergs. If you haven't seen a sample of his almost professional printing you've missed something. He's also added a good many scores to the record of our valiant hockey team. He is well known around East Providence and is bound for Rhode Island School of Design.

AUDREY MAE SMITH

141 Roger Williams Avenue, Rumford

"Best dressed" is what the seniors voted her in their class poll. She can always be seen at school functions—basketball games, dances, football games. We hear, however, that some of her interest belongs on College Hill.

*loads of luck and success
Avis*

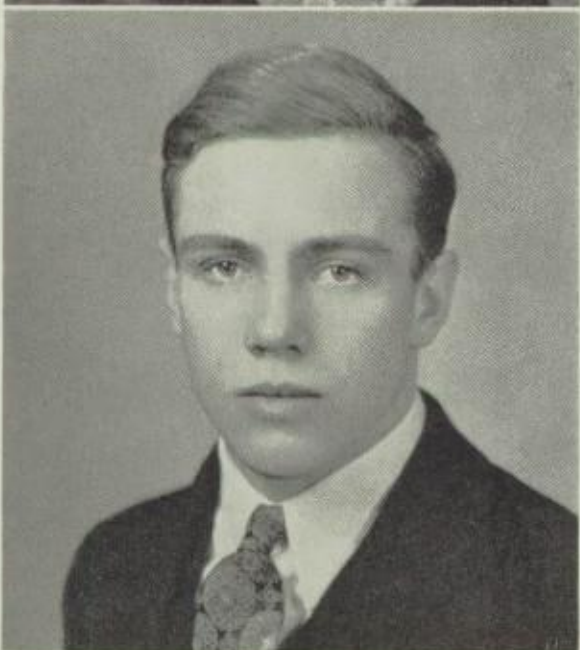

AVIS SMITH

22 Hazelwood Avenue

Camera Club (3), Basketball (2).

Avis is a tiny girl with a tiny voice. She has a very sweet disposition. Although Avis is quiet in the classrooms, she is a changed person when school is over. If there were more people like Avis, I am sure the teachers would not be a nervous wreck at the end of the day.

CARROLL JAY SMITH

11 Balkcom Street, Riverside

Football (2-3), Track (1-2-3), Band (1-2-3), School Play (2-3), Hi-Y (3).

Carroll—the boy whose alacrity in side stepping, in dodging, in jumping over opponents—is now leaving. His remarkable sense of humor and his deep respect for his teachers are his outstanding qualities. We like his slow, well-pronounced speech and his easy-going disposition. May fortune be with you in the years to come.

LAURA TILDEN SMITH

90 Anthony Street

Ping-pong (1-2), Horseback-riding (1), Fencing (1), Golf (3).

Laura, better known to her friends as Tillie, is the girl who always walks around our corridors just bubbling over with life and good cheer. Whenever you see a group of girls or girls and boys all laughing and enjoying life to its fullest, you know that Tillie isn't far off. Her ability to make friends will prove a valuable asset to her in her later life.

ALPHONSE SOLLITO

332 Taunton Avenue

Al has spent a great deal of his three years in the athletic room and has all kinds of managerships to show for his time and energy. He is one of Mr. Smith's "right-hand" men, and an excellent one at that. We hear that he hopes to attend either R. I. State or Providence College after his graduation.

JOHN LESTER SPENCER, JR.

23 Dartmouth Avenue, Riverside

Track (2), Band (1-2-3), All N. E. Band (1), All Eastern Band (2-3), Orchestra (3).

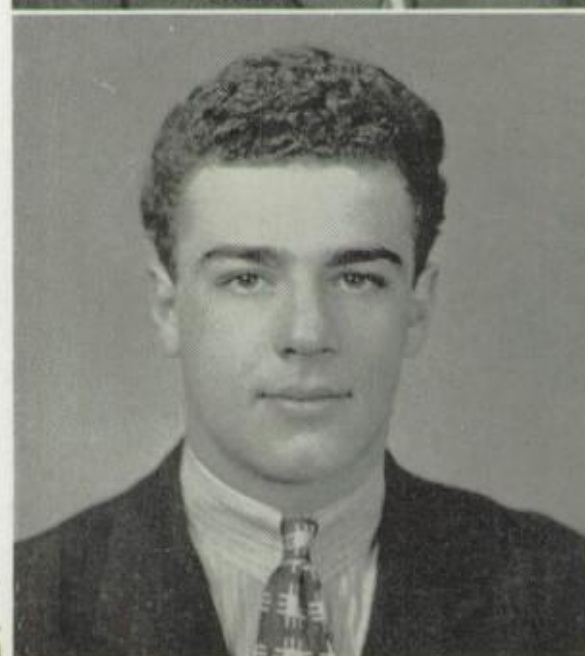

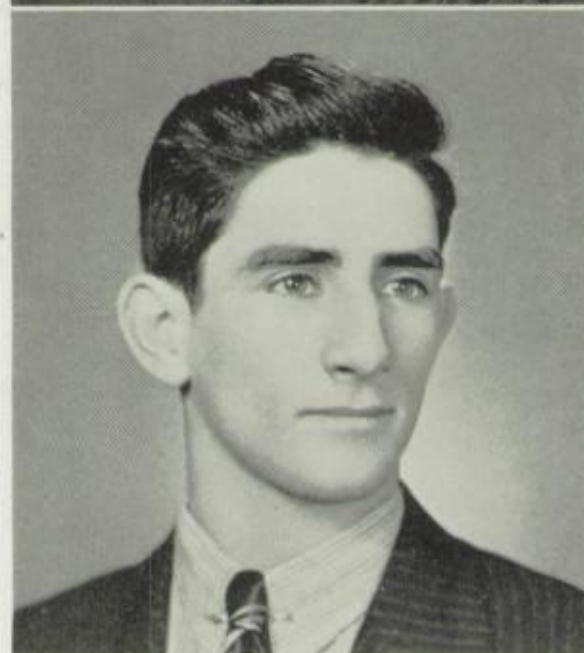

Let me introduce an outstanding trombonist and piano player. Lester has a personality all his own, which makes him popular among his classmates. Someday Let may be one of our champion skiers. Perhaps you have seen his name in the sports column as an active member of the Risky Runners. Let was born talented. Keep it up, Let.

CHARLES PETER STORM

740 Barrington Parkway

Wrestling (1-2-3), Track (1-2-3), Football (1-2-3), Class Treasurer (2), Nominating Committee (2-3).

Who's that emerging from a huddle of girls? Why it's none other than our Charlie Storm—the man of the hour. He can play football; he can dance; he can wrestle; he can translate German; and he can collect dues. He very able filled the position of junior class treasurer and undoubtedly he will be a success in life.

ALICE CECELIA STRICKLAND

121 Turner Avenue, Riverside

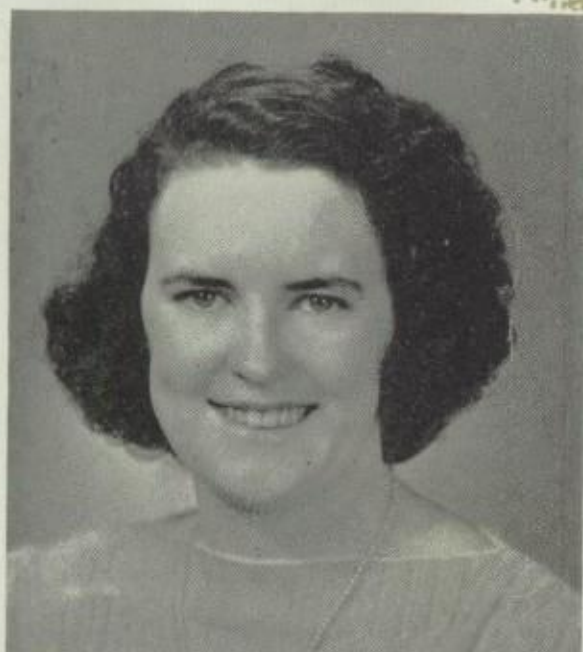

Alice is tall, slim, and blond; and she's as nice as she sounds. Also she is another of our versatile girls; but because she, Beatrice, and Margaret Raftery keep their company to themselves only a few others besides her two pals know how clever, witty, and smart she is.

BEATRICE MARY STRICKLAND

121 Turner Avenue, Riverside

At first glance Beatrice Happiness Good luck, Beatrice. you, for she gives you the impression of being a very quiet, demure person. Underneath that exterior is a witty prankster. Her bete noir is her height. For years she has stretched and pined trying to grow an inch or two, but we like her as she is. Good luck, Beatrice.

KATHRYN LOUISE SULLIVAN

199 Warren Avenue

Basketball (2), Camera Club (3).

Kathryn is the girl with the cute little nose. We all remember her as an ardent member of the Camera Club and one of Professor Crandall's pupils in the Jabberwock. She has lived her life here at East Providence to the fullest, and we all wish her success in the future.

EDNA OLIVE SWANSON

95 North Broadway, Rumford

Basketball (1).

Edna is the sunny miss from room one. Sunny hair and sunny disposition are two of her outstanding characteristics. Just looking at her makes one happy. We think Dan Cupid must have liked her disposition, too, because he shot her with a great big arrow. Lots of luck, Edna!

HOWARD PAUL SWANSON

9 Mowry Avenue

Crimson (3), Football (2-3), Baseball (1-2-3), Bowling (3).

Tall, dark, and handsome—Swede answers all these qualities to a T. He is a smooth dancer and a smart dresser. His attendance at all the school games and dances is warmly welcomed. He is a good student, and so we propose a toast to him and wish him all the luck in the world.

BARBARA ADA SYKES

34 Arcade Avenue, Seekonk

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Vice-president
(2), Baseball (1-2), Basketball (1-2).

That attractive, golden-haired girl with the dreamy look in her eyes is Barbie. She is an accomplished piano player and an excellent dancer. Her pretty hair and attractive clothes make her the belle of any ball. That dreamy look that was mentioned formerly is for a certain someone in Room 5. We wonder who?

ROBERT TAIT

87 Ruth Avenue, Phillipsdale

Here is a young man whom we consider as being grave in disposition and effort. We think that he is capable of great accomplishments, and we hope that he will succeed. He has attended to his studies earnestly. Certainly he will reach his destination as a result of his whole-hearted attempts.

MABEL ELIZABETH TATRO

157 Dewey Avenue

Mabel is the girl who amazes her classmates with the excellent marks she manages to obtain even on the most difficult of examinations. Besides being a student of high scholastic standing she is known for her genial manners. She always seems calm and composed. We hope her future will be a bright one.

CHARLES TEBBETTS

2812 Pawtucket Avenue

Band (1-2-3), Hi-Y (3), Camera Club (1-2-3),
President (3).

Charlie is one of our star drummers. His work in the band has made it just that much more enjoyable at our football games. He has brought home to E. P. awards for his drumming, too. His hobby is photography; maybe it will be his future, who knows? Good luck, Charlie.

THELMA VIOLET THELL

131 Fenner Avenue, Riverside

Thelma is a petite blonde with a golden voice. She is a member of that famous trio, "The Swing Sisters." She has a charming personality and is known throughout the school for her sweet ways. She will undoubtedly be popular no matter where she goes.

CHARLES JOHN TIERNEY

99 Vine Street

Charlie is that friendly, good-natured giant from room six. An excellent history student, Charles has become a good worker since he has overcome that powerful temptation to bunk. We wish him all the luck possible in his ambition to become a physician.

GLORIA REBECCA TITUS

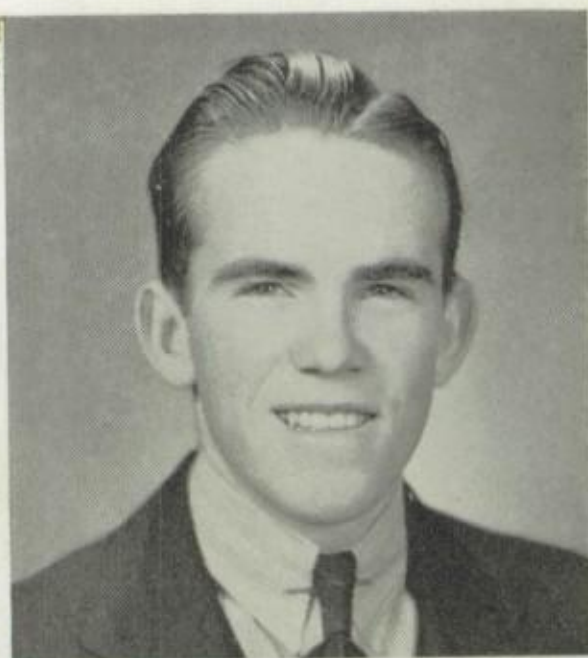

2 Waterman Avenue

Although reserved and quiet, Gloria is a good student, as shown by her marks in physics, besides being a friendly, sociable girl. Among her favorite recreations she holds dancing. She intends to go into nursing after graduating, and judging from what we see of her, no one should be sick long with Gloria on the job.

JOHN HENRY TRAINOR

28 Malta Street, Seekonk

John, he of the engaging smile and very collegiate manner, is as popular with the students as the last day of school. He is an ardent sport fan. Roller-skating, dancing, and swimming are some of his favorite sports. We wish you success, John.

HENRIETTA EVELYN TRAVERS

147 Blanding Street

Home Economics Club (3).

Henrietta is the girl with the sparkling eyes and the winning smile. She has many other assets too—prettiness, popularity, good-nature. Her determined nature will carry her a long way in a life which we hope will be pleasant.

*Best of luck,
Henrietta*

DORIS CLAIRE TRUDELL

46 Fenmore Street

Doris is that shy girl we see hurrying to and from classes. She is studious and always ready to give a helping hand to others. With her winning personality and nice ways, she would be an asset to any class.

LENORA JEAN TUCKER

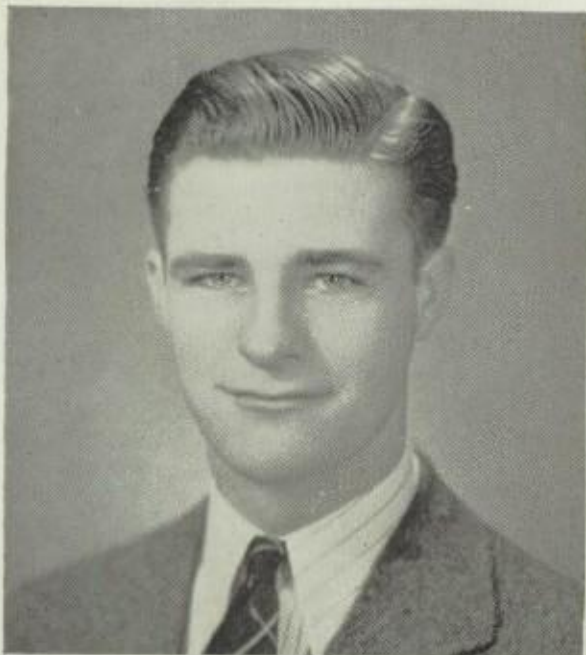

3427 Pawtucket Avenue

Band (1-2-3), N. E. Band (1-2-3), N. E. Festival (2-3), National Festival (3), Table Tennis (2), Hi-Tri (3).

Lively, talented, witty, popular—all these describe Lennie, that small lass from Riverside. Her clarinet playing has been an asset to the band, as has also the transportation to the games furnished by Lennie and a certain alumnus for other members of the music-making body. Lennie's personality-plus will always fit her unto any group as it has here.

Success always Lennie

ROY TULLY

8 Smith Street, Riverside

Who's the friendly chap seen in the corridors of old E. P. H. S.? Why, don't you know,—that's Roy Tully, the lad who's happy all day long. You can always see him talking and laughing in his happy-go-lucky manner with a friend, old or new, as the case may be.

THELMA TURNER

47 Vine Street

Thelma is one of our unsophisticated, cheerful girls, one whose friendliness has earned her much respect from both students and faculty. Quiet and sensible, Thelma is sure to succeed in whatever future she chooses.

DOROTHEA FRANCES VENDETTI

44 Fall River Avenue, Seekonk

Dot is noted for her good humor and timely witty remarks. If ever you are feeling blue or as if the world has sadly neglected its duty to you, just call on Dot and she will make your spirits rise and with them your opinion of the world in general in practically no time at all. She is also one of our faithful followers at school activities.

ELLA ADELINE VIALL

884 Broadway

Honor Society, Crimson (3), Business Mgr. School Play (1), Hi-Tri (2-3), Secretary (3), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Basketball (1), Cheerleader (2-3), Co-captain (2), Social Committee (2), Senior Play (3), Jabberwock (2-3), Bowling Manager (3).

Ella is one of the little girls that seem so popular in this year's graduating class. She is also one of the cheer-leaders; and whenever there is a hockey, basketball, or football game, Ella is sure to be there with bells on. She set her heart on going to Wellesley, and next September will find her there carrying on the excellent grades that she attained in E. P. H. S.

Best of Luck

AGNES ROSE VICCIONE

106 Burgess Avenue

Vicky is a lively miss with sparkling black eyes and pretty black hair. She is a confirmed jitterbug, always knowing the latest steps. She has made the most of her educational opportunities at school, frequently reaching honor ranks. Best of luck, Vicky, along your chosen road to success.

ISABEL VINCENT

315 Juniper Street

Petite Isabel with her pleasing manner and husky voice hasn't been forgotten even though she left us in February. For all her size she's a quick and energetic little thing, and will certainly succeed in whatever field she enters. Good luck, Isabel.

Best of Luck

EDITH PATRICIA VUCCI

233 Juniper Street

This young lady, although rather diminutive in size, will hold a permanent place in our memories. She is full of pep and is always willing to enter into the spirit of things. Her ability to encourage one and lift one's gloom makes it a pleasure to be in her company. Edith, we sincerely hope that you will obtain the things you want.

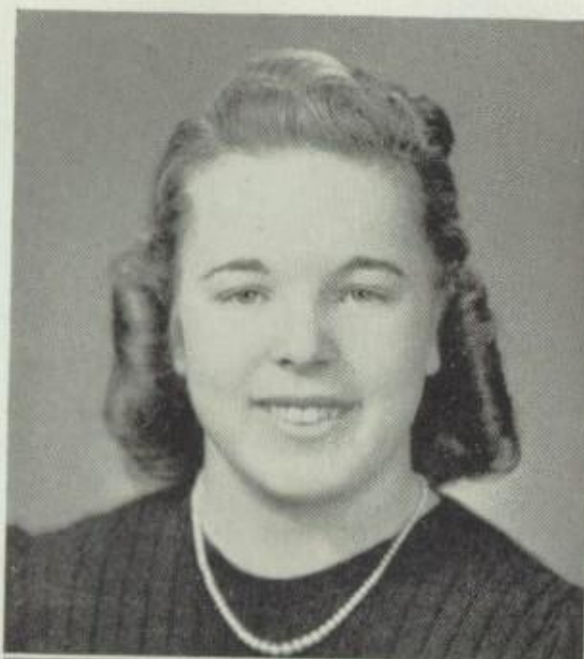

HELEN NADINE WALKER

680 Barrington Parkway

Helen is well liked because she is patient, refined, and courteous. She is very conscientious about her work. Her actions are always motivated by sound reason. Her esteem for knowledge and education will be rewarded, we are sure.

HAZEL MILDRED WALTHER

39 Glen Street, Riverside

Here is a student whose ambition and desire to get ahead will lead her far onto the path of success. Her childhood wish to be a nurse will soon be fulfilled when she goes into training. Her charming disposition and her amiability will add much to her credits. Keep up the good work, and it won't be long before you reach the top.

MURIEL RUTH WASHBURN

School Street, Seekonk

Honor Society.

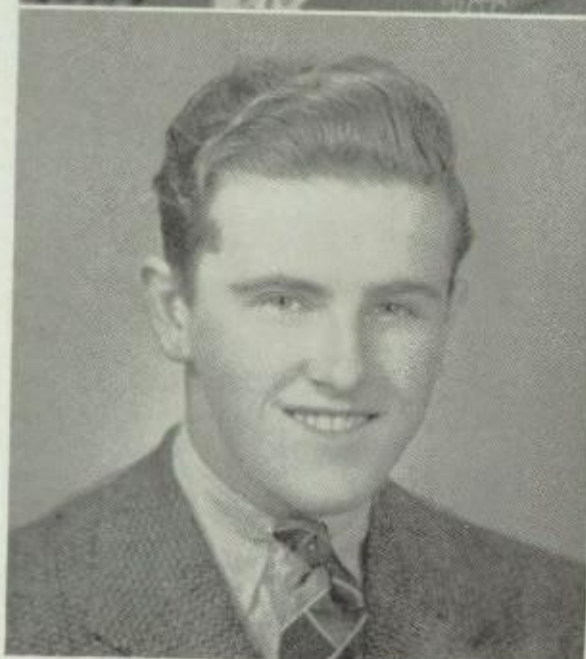

Muriel certainly has a right to be proud of the scholastic record she is leaving behind here in East Providence. Her marks are the type we all envy and strive for. She is well-liked by teachers and pupils alike. She is good-natured, obliging, and friendly and is headed straight for success.

BERTHA MARIE WEBB

55 Taunton Avenue

Bertha always seems to be calm and unruffled in any situation. Her congeniality and sincerity have won her friends which she will always have. We are sure that Bertha will attain the goal for which she aims through her loyalty and perseverance.

DONALD LEWIS WELSHMAN

138 Vine Street

Donnie is a well known student around East Providence. His happy disposition overpowers gloom. Don is the boy who gets up early in the morning and goes hunting. One can always find him with his pal Charlie or his gal. Good luck, Donnie.

Johnny

JOHN WETTON

30 Hazelwood Avenue

Johnnie, despite his rather conservative habits in school, is really full of animation. He plays a particularly good game of tennis. He makes a neat appearance and is highly thought of by his classmates. We hope good fortune will favor him at every trial that he may experience.

CHARLES HENRY WHALON

84 Washburn Avenue, Rumford

In the groove! That's where you can find Charlie at the school dances, for he is really a smooth dancer. He is neat in appearance and gentlemanly in his ways. Who knows? Perhaps the future will make him a second Fred Astaire. Here's to you, Charlie!

RUTH WILSON WHITAKER

200 Wilson Avenue, Rumford

Crimson (3), Cheerleader (2-3), Hi-Tri (2-3), Vice President (3), G. A. A. (1-2-3), Vice President (2), President (3), Social Committee (2), Cap and Gown Committee (3), Basketball (1-2), Baseball (1-2-3), Bowling (3).

Who's that dark, vivacious, dynamic little girl running down the corridor? Why, that's Ruthie, the popular little girl who bubbles over with joy; and who always has a cheery smile and a happy "hello" for her many friends. She, also is a faithful member of several clubs, a hard working cheer-leader, and an ardent dance supporter.

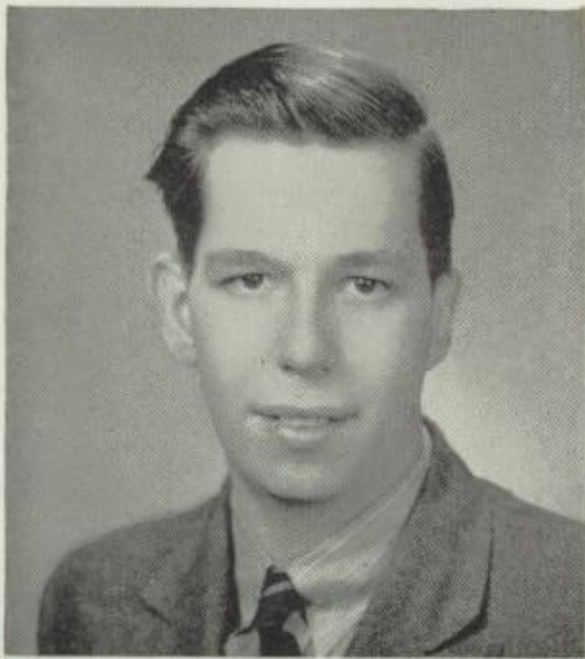

WILLIAM WATTLES WHITE

846 Broadway

Bill at present is the little man who isn't here, having left us in February. Bill has attained good grades through out his high school career of three years. His achievement here and his very business-like manner should be an asset to him in his after-high-school career.

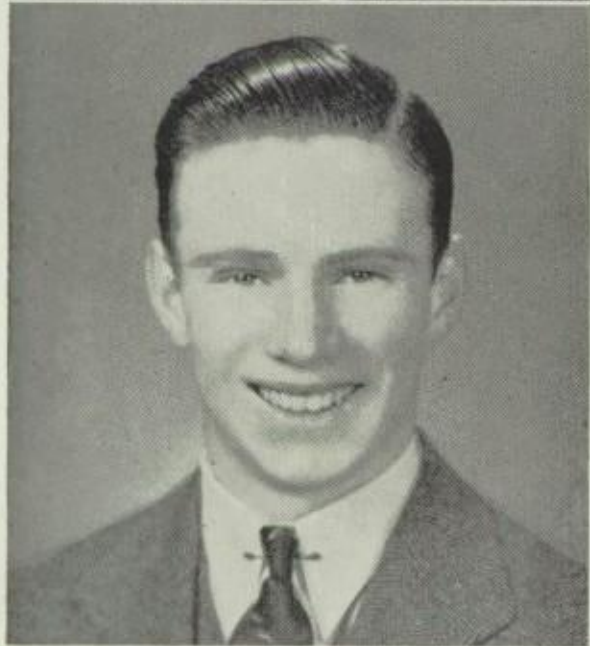

CHARLES SHELDON WILKEY

48 Freeborn Avenue
Camera Club (3).

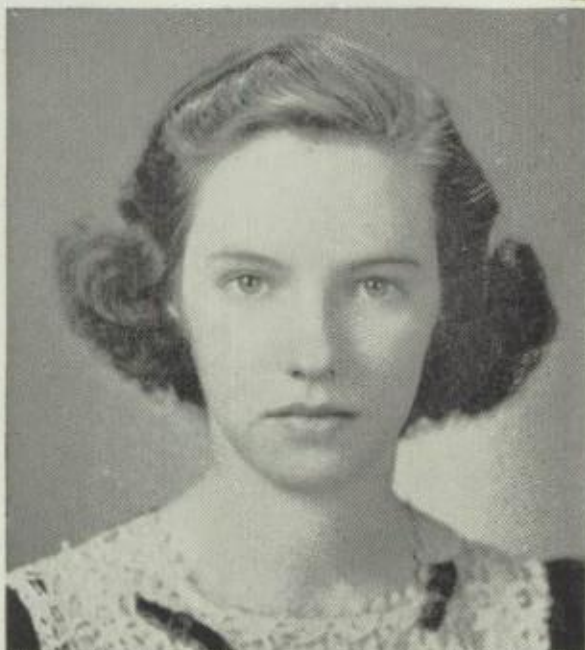

Charlie is one of the more quiet but more likeable members of the class. His pleasant smile has attracted to him many friends. We understand that his interests lie in photography, art, and church affairs. We wish him success in whatever he does after graduation.

WARREN HARDING WILSON

Arcade Avenue, Seekonk

Everyone is acquainted with Warren's musical talents. His clarinet playing is always enjoyed in assemblies and at the football games. Warren's very excellent drum-majoring was surely a large factor in the band's Armistice Day award. His high scholastic achievements have also been no small part of his accomplishments.

EDITH IRENE WOULFE

197 Warren Avenue

Honor Society, Basketball (2), Camera Club (3).

Edith is another one of the quiet, studious girls in the class. She is very friendly and well-liked by all who know her. Although she is reputed to be one of the youngest members of the class, her name can always be found on the honor rolls, thus disproving the old saying "Age breeds wisdom."

EDITH MAY WYNAUGHT

24 Henry Street

Edith is that well-known, slender, and attractive miss with the outstanding personality. Her nonchalant attitude keeps her calm in every situation. Edith's pleasant ways and mirthful laugh makes her popular. May all her dreams and ambitions be fulfilled.

STANLEY EDWARD MAZEKA

28 Victoria Avenue, Rumford

Stan is another of the popular members of the football team. He can always be seen either driving his car or participating in athletic activities. His wavy blond hair has attracted many a look from envious members of the same and opposite sex, and the adjectives "easy-going" and "friendly" describe him to perfection.

RAPHAEL JOSEPH AMATO

52 School Street

It seems that Ralph can't help being musical any more than he can help breathing. He is adept at playing any number of instruments and distinguished himself last year by composing a song. The band will certainly regret his going, but we realize that he is going on to greater heights in the field of music. Good luck, Ralph.

CLASSES

CLASS OF 1940

In 1937 graduates from Central Junior High School and from Riverside Junior High School banded together to enter this building as what we call the sophomore class. Frightened and bewildered, but happy and rather proud because we were now in high school, we entered this Institute of Learning to become a minor cog in the great wheel of learning that rotates, pushing us on to higher and greater things.

The next year we returned as self-assured juniors. Miss Hazel Gilbert became our class advisor, and under her able guidance, we organized ourselves as a class. We chose class officers from some of our outstanding members with the results that for president we had that sunny-haired boy from Seekonk, Carl Helgersen. For vice-president that ever popular girl with the personality grin, Ruth Cunningham, was chosen. Our secretary, Marguerite Adams, was another fair-haired and capable person. And last, but not least, our treasurer was that dashing young Romeo, Charles Storm.

In May we held our super-colossal, magniglamorous Junior Prom which, of course, topped all preceding ones. It was held at the Rhode Island Country Club where we danced in the magnificent ball room to the tunes played by Bob White and his orchestra.

The next year as haughty seniors looking down upon the sea of sophomores and juniors we entered the

CLASS OF 1941

May we introduce the outstanding Junior Class of many years with regard to scholastic ability and personality. Our selection of class officers bears evidence of the fine material that was available for these duties. Raymond Monahan, our choice for president, possesses that forever genial disposition and perpetual good nature together with the leadership qualities that are so necessary for this office. Betty Whitaker was the selection for vice president and very much a representative of our class qualifications. For that very tedious office of secretary, "Seekonk's Own," Shirley Snow, proved very efficient and capable. Eddie Riley was elected to the "Tax Division," an office whose popularity decreases as the year moves on. A tried and trusted servant of the class—our treasurer.

The social committee, that group of six "go getting hustlers," responsible for our carefree times, has moved every thing at a fast and furious pace with Fred Barney at the wheel.

The annual, "catch as catch can, no holds barred," event, the Jabberwock was held in March. We featured "Sadie Hawkins Day" with Tom Stringfellow as Lil Abner, Edith Williams as Daisy May, Ray Monahan as Marrying Sam, and a supporting cast of Eddie Riley, Olly Hopkins, Irving Siperstein, Donald Robbins, Eileen Stoddard, Jean Stoddard, Edith Brooke, Shirley Snow, Betty Whitaker, and Charles Cressy.

THE CLASS OF '42

Maybe in 1939 we were a class of gawky, wide-eyed sophomores; look how we've changed. Do we get lost and straggle around the building any more? Hardly ever. Have we gained in assurance? Watch us in the corridors. Do we offer hope for the future of America? Behold our honor rolls and our rugged individualists. Talent? Two of the principals and many of the chorus for "Pinafore" came from '42. Remember our part in the Jabberwock. At least a dozen of us, important in our new uniforms, puff and strut with the band. We've a virtuoso of the strings and three masters of the keyboard who can and do perform in assemblies. We have gentlemen who bowl with distinction, one or two of the state's "best six" fencers, some future Lou Gehrigs, and varsity athletes ready to do or die for the glory of the Red and White in football and basketball. Surely "we belong." Maybe we haven't the gravity of seniors, but we point proudly to our alertness—even in the classrooms. In the history of the world, 1939 A. D. may not stand out; to us it is the year we came to East Providence High School. We came, we saw,—we hope to conquer.

lofty halls of this Institute of Learning. We held another election with the following results: president—that star of stars in athletic accomplishments, Charles Bentley; vice president—that "friend in need is a friend indeed," Shirley Messinger; secretary—that friendly debater, Mary Kelly; treasurer—that red-headed demon of the football squad, Charles Crowshaw. The vice president of our class and editor-in-chief of the Crimson, Shirley Messinger, was chosen best citizen and received the D. A. R. Award.

Twenty-eight members of our class (four of which were boys, oh, shame!) were elected to the Rhode Island Honor Society.

In June as we were receiving our diplomas, we seemed to see the three years pass before our eyes in a flash, and then we realized that those three years of hard but happy work were over and that these diplomas were our rewards.

GOOD CITIZEN

Each year, the senior class and the faculty choose from the class a girl who, to them, has been the best citizen of the school. Characteristics such as loyalty, cooperation, ability in leadership, trustworthiness, dependability, and scholarship are taken into consideration by all those who make the choice. The girl who has been so esteemed by her classmates and teachers automatically becomes a candidate in the Good Citizenship Contest, which is conducted throughout the country by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

This year, the outstanding member of the class proved to be Shirley Messinger. Shirley has participated in many extra-curricula activities and has proved her leadership in many untold ways. She is the kind of person who can make you sit up and take notice and not be sorry that you have. It is people like Shirley who make East Providence hold up its head and be proud. May there be many more like her!

SENIOR PLAY

This year's senior class very ably presented Clifford Goldsmith's "What A Life."

The story revolves about the trials and tribulations of Henry Aldrich, a school boy at Central High. The plot is complicated by George Bigelow, the class bully and shiek, who is the most important factor in causing Henry's mishaps. Barbara Pearson, the ideal schoolgirl, is the object of both boy's affections. It is interesting to note the characterization of the different teachers.

That ever dynamic Robert Peel portrayed Henry Aldrich with a certain amount of natural feeling. Walter Rooney as George Bigelow was a very convincing bully and shiek. Ruth Cunningham, the ideal schoolgirl, interpreted her part aptly. Shirley Messinger was the girl in the love match. Barbara Gillooly, one of the caricatured teachers, Anthony Patalano, just someone's parent, William Crandall, an appealing assistant principal, and Warren Wilson, the principal, were all effectively cast. The minor roles were suitably played. The affair proved successful and the senior class will long remember it as an outstanding event.

DEBATING

This year the debating team was engaged in discussion rather than in competition. These discussions were patterned after the radio program "Town Meeting of the Air."

As soon as school began, a team consisting of Charles Knickrehm, Mary Kelly, Carl Helgersen, Helen Carter, Fred Hunt, Carolyn Short, and Carolyn Adams, was chosen to participate in the Model Congress at Kingston. The bill it proposed was "Should the United States Adopt a Policy of Complete Isolation?" East Providence was a member of the House of Representatives and through this department attempted to pass its proposal.

When the term was fairly well under way, the debating team appeared on an assembly program. It had as its guests the debaters from Classical High School. There was a lively discussion on "Should There Be a Third Term?" with East Providence taking the negative stand. The student body then participated by asking questions from the floor.

Early in April the team entertained the Craftsman's Club here. The subject for discussion was "Union Now."

THE H. M. S. PIANAFORE

An outstanding production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "H. M. S. Pinafore" was presented by the combined efforts of the glee club and orchestra.

This excellent performance was, surprisingly enough, the glee club's first public appearance and the first this year for the orchestra since the regular concert last spring.

The operetta is full of mystery, love, and excitement. Sympathy is immediately aroused by Ralph Rackstraw, a foremast hand, who is madly in love with the Captain's daughter, Josephine. Brokenhearted because he is in no position to marry her and because she must marry Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., he determines to commit suicide. Josephine then confesses her love for him and makes him change his purpose. Their plans to elope are disrupted by the villain, Dead Eye Dick, who informs the captain of their plans. At this point, the captain and Ralph are both thrown into prison, the captain for using profane language and Ralph for daring even to think of marrying Sir Joseph's wife-to-be.

Buttercup, a vendor, discloses a mistake she made many years before. When very young, she nursed two children, one of poor parents, the other a patrician. By some chance, she mixed up these two children and the captain, the patrician, really should be the foremast hand; and Ralph, the poor boy, the captain.

When this is told to Sir Joseph, he changes his intentions, for the Admiral cannot marry a foremast hand's daughter. Ralph and Josephine are happily reunited. Sir Joseph and the captain both find their loves and bring the story to a happy close.

Herbert Brown as Ralph Rackstraw gave an unusually fine performance. Ralph Perry, the Captain, turned out to be a very promising soloist for the music department. Miss Rush, of the faculty, made an attractive daughter, while Lawrence Conlin, the Admiral, firmly established himself as a singer and a very good actor. The supports were helpful in making the operetta a success.

The scenery, which was most effective, and the sailors uniforms were hired. During the intermission what could be more appropriate than Sea Scouts in full uniform selling salt water taffy?

The cast included Buttercup, Winifred Anderson; Dick Dead Eye, James Stott; Hebe, Madelaine Roberge; Boatswain, Walter Reeves; Carpenter, Ralph Tavares, plus the entire glee club. A very efficient staff consisting of business manager, Lura Newton; wardrobe mistress, Suzan Baker; electrician, Joseph Jarvis; deserve a great deal of credit for their diligent work.

THE INFORMER

The Informer has just completed one of its most successful and active years. Last fall it was hoped that the paper would eventually be a printed sheet. It was discovered, however, that this would be too expensive and too inconvenient. Therefore the idea was dropped.

Then came the Christmas edition which kept the staff busy into the wee sma' hours of the night. With that off our minds we turned to the task of eliminating blots on our white paper. This is the reason that the latest copies of the Informer have been printed on rainbow paper which is more absorbent than the paper that we previously used. This fact eliminates most of the blots.

Our entry in the Jabberwock, "Your Favorite Radio Program," won first prize. We are indebted to Robert Peel, columnist and man of letters, for writing this clever skit.

In April the cast of the skit was asked to put it on again for the Craftman's Club. With the money derived from the Jabberwock the staff plans to have a social.

The editors and Miss Mulvey, our faculty advisor, wish to thank the staff for all of their diligent efforts. The student body is also to be thanked for making possible our increased circulation. May we have more years like the one we have just completed!

LIBRARY AUXILIARY

As all students well know, our library is primarily for reference work. Miss Hill, interested in having the students become acquainted with good books, is unable to attend to everyone. For this reason, the Library Auxiliary was formed.

The Auxiliary has a membership of twenty-three students who are carefully trained in daily routine of desk work, leaving the librarian free to attend to special work.

Two of the duties of the members are charging and discharging books and magazines, and making project books. In addition to these everyday duties, the club has many social activities throughout the year. The Auxiliary had a Christmas party, had a Valentine party, celebrated Book Week, held a Whist Party, entered the Jabberwock and had a St. Patrick's Day Bridge. The greatest achievement each year is the publication of "The Bookworm." It is edited entirely by the members, who write stories, poems, and other articles.

The year's officers were as follows: president—Barbara Gillooly, vice-president—Edithe Brooke, secretary—Marie Villeneuve, and treasurer—Bette Taylor.

BAND

The band made its debut this year early in the fall when the Riverside Business Men sponsored the band in a successful attempt to earn the money which is owed on its uniforms. Later a dance and concert was held at Crescent Park. The proceeds from this affair were large enough to liquidate a great part of the remaining deficit. Not long after this our band played at the opening and conclusion of the East Providence Community Drive. In November at the Armistice Day Parade the band, for the second consecutive time, won the cup—an award based on appearance.

Everyone who attended the football games will surely remember the band's faithful and enthusiastic support at every game. The very effective drills they executed at these games added much to the enjoyment of each game.

During the term an assembly program was devoted to the band. The entire school agreed that it was excellent entertainment.

In December the annual Rhode Island Band Concert was held at Hope High. A large representation from East Providence participated and Mr. Farnum played a cornet solo. As usual there were members of the band who entered the All New England Band. The Rhode Island Music Festival, an outstanding affair, was held in East Providence this year. Our Band was represented on this occasion also.

It can very well be said that the band has completed a very busy and profitable year.

HI-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." This is the creed that the Hi-Y tries to live up to and herein we will try to tell of some of its activities.

It is with respect and esteem that we consider our Hi-Y which is the largest group in the state. Never before has East Providence had so many boys interested in this organization.

Thirty-one new members were installed this season in September. They passed their initiation by appearing in unmated shoes, white trousers, white shirts, black vests, and bow ties.

An informal dance was held in October at the Seekonk Gun Club in honor of the football team. All the gridiron heroes were present, and it proved to be a very successful affair.

This group of active boys sponsored another dance in April. This dance, a semi-formal affair held at the Edgewood Yacht Club, was efficiently managed and well attended.

In June the boys finished their activities by participating in a joint swimming party with the girls of Hi-Tri.

The officers this year were as follows: president, Everett Kahrman; vice-president, William Sloane; treasurer, Arlon Munro; and secretary, Henry Honeyman.

HIGH SCHOOL

HI-TRI

The Hi-Tri, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., is a club whose object is to help in the social works connected with the school.

The officers for this year were as follows: president, Shirley Messinger; vice-president, Ruth Whitaker; secretary, Ella Viall; and treasurer, Florence Bain. In February Helen Miller took up the duties of treasurer when Florence Bain retired. Miss Pickett as the new advisor has efficiently counseled the organization and guided its activities.

On Friday the 13th of October, the girls defied all jinxes and held an informal dance at the Seekonk Gun Club where black cats, witches, mirrors, and stepladders played an important part as decorations. This affair was followed by a formal dance in December at the Hotel Hixon. In January the girls modeled their own clothes at a fashion show for members of the faculty and friends.

The annual Hi-Tri formal was held early in March at the Goff Memorial Hall. Despite the many snowstorms and postponements many couples attended.

Three members, Esther Brooke, Ruth Blomstedt, and Betty Moyer, attended the Midwinter Conference in Brockton as delegates from East Providence.

A Mother and Daughter Banquet in June brought to a close a very successful year.

CAMERA CLUB

The officers of the 1939-40 Camera Club are as follows: president, Charles Tebbetts; vice-president, Charles Cressy; secretary, Leroy Brown; associate secretary, Charles Wilkey; and treasurer, William Crandall. The first of the term was spent in instructing the new members in the art of developing and printing pictures. The school department built a new dark room for the club. This room is arranged so that from four to six persons may use it at one time. It is air-conditioned and is fitted with equipment for use in all phases of amateur photography. The club procured a new easel for use with the enlargers and an automatic timing device for use in developing or printing pictures. The club, for the first time, entered a skit in the Jabberwock, entitled "School Days." The club also sponsored its annual photography exhibit and contest in the school library. Edward Davis won first prize in this contest, Barbara Gillooly won second prize, and Larry Conlon received honorable mention. The club started in September with its maximum membership of forty-one members, but now it has thirty-one members. The next and crowning social event of the year, will be the annual club picnic. Plans are now being made for the gala occasion, which is looked forward to eagerly by all the members of the club.

Salomey, the pig, another member of the cast, was unable to find transportation. We reluctantly gave way to the prize winning Informer staff.

Selection of class rings strained the artistic ability of our class officers, but the result was a masterpiece of design in plain gold or gold onyx, choice optional.

Our Junior Prom, the social event of the year, arranged by the never tiring social committee and held at the Rhode Island Country Club ushered in May with a glorious start. Music by Ed Drew needs no description, and with this perfect setting, the success of this gala event was secured.

To say that our class is outstanding does not convey our true thought. A class reflects the true spirit of its advisor; and if one year will produce a well organized class, then we have much to look forward to under the guidance and direction of our friend and class advisor, Miss Dorothy Pickett.

Another interesting and well presented assembly was devoted to the debating team in April. During this assembly East Providence debaters discussed the topic "Union Now."

To further the idea of discussion rather than competition, Miss Helen Carter joined the two members from Hope against two members from East Providence and one from Hope.

There is ample evidence to show that your high school period has been a profitable and enjoyable one. We are most desirous that the period that is now to follow is not going to be filled with disillusionment and discouragement. Good citizenship rests to a large extent on satisfactory adjustment to the economic life of the community. By working together on this as another educational problem we can do a great deal for the Class of 1940 and for the community in which we live.

Do you remember?

The incident in the New Britian game, which almost gave us the victory, when Bill Mooney broke free and ran 47 yards, only to get caught from behind on the 10 yard line? The Hope game, when a long forward pass, Bentley to Hall, put the ball into a position, where Bill Mooney scored the tying touchdown a few plays later? The Rogers game, when Charlie Bentley, who was resting a wrenched knee, was called off the bench to supervise an 87 yard march for the winning touchdown? The Mt. Pleasant game, when not a single penalty was passed out to either team? The night before the Central game, when a group of Townie "gentlemen" painted Cranston Stadium red? The Cranston game, when Kelly Smith took a forward pass meant for Austin Handy, and ran 35 yards for a touchdown?

The Pawtucket game, when Kelly Smith took the ball on a reverse and ran 45 yards to the Pawtucket 35 yard line where he was caught from behind? The Barrington game, when the Townies, paced by Larry Britto, went 60 yards for a touchdown? The La Salle game, when Captain Charlie Bentley dropped back to the 25 yard line and placekicked a field-goal, and shortly after when Art Lister intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards for the second score?

HOCKEY

The East Providence Hockey team, although on the short end of many encounters, showed the same fighting spirit and courage that is typical of our former hockey teams.

The new coach, Bob Dye, former East Providence and Brown hockey star had only two veterans with which to work, these two being Captain Ken Gibson and Larry Shepard. They contributed much to the team as did Walt Bourne, Charlie Bentley, and Bill Sloane.

However, we look forward to a fine team next year as there are so regularly on the team this year.

BASKETBALL

Unlike the basketball teams produced in the past few years, our quintet started off badly, but came back and proved that it was worthy of carrying the Townie colors.

When the half-term rolled around, the team lost the services of Captain Max Kirby, Buss Sandahl, and Harry Carey. The absence of these boys put a serious dent in the Townie squad, but it returned to form and with Captain elect George Genarri, Orland Petrosino, and Eddie Roe leading the offence, and Johnny Lyons, George Tyrer, Jim Blakely, and Frank Fresselli, the defence, the team completed the season with reasonable success.

TRACK

Coach Harold Goodwin, under the extreme handicap of a cold and wet spring, has developed a fine track squad to represent East Providence this year. The outlook is bright, even though there are only six veterans returning from last year.

The veterans are Mannie Furtado,

Jim Blakely, Red Crowshaw, Howie and Art Lister, and Austin Handy. Bill Sloane and Herb Carey have also made fine showings to date.

The team is composed of only thirty men, but we believe that quality, not quantity, will carry us the farthest.

WRESTLING

Our wrestling team continued the splendid work of last year by winning all but one of its meets. The Mount Pleasant team almost upset our famous grapplers by holding them to a 16 to 16 tie. Our team became the first schoolboy wrestling team in Rhode Island to score a shutout, Moses Brown being the victim, 29 to 0. Barney Norton, one of our state champions last year, was eligible only for three contests; but he won these easily. Tommy Bowen and Mannie Furtado were undefeated in the team matches, while Captain Russ Grocer and Al Bailey were defeated only once. Furtado was the 110 pound state champion, and Al Bailey captured the 175 pound medal. Russ Grocer, 135 pound champion last year, and Tom Bowen lost out in the state championship finals.

Coach Ralph Anderton deserves much credit for turning out such an aggregation of wrestlers, and we hope that he can continue this high grade work.

BASEBALL

Because of the inclement weather, the baseball team has had little chance to show its potentialities before this writeup was made, but because of the number of veterans returning, we have high hopes for the team's future.

The team will be captained by Charlie Bentley, all-state outfielder last year, and the fourth highest batter in the league, who will be playing center field. Rip Riley, a newcomer to the baseball team, has clinched the catcher's berth; George Tyrer will be at first; Ed Roe on second; Jed Schifino, another newromer, at short; and Ray Scullian on third. The outfield will be picked from Shine Mooney, Diz Durosiers, Luke Costello, and Rip Connors. The pitching staff will be headed by Bernie McDowell, who played third base last year, Swede Swanson, and Ray Pickett.

This combination is well-sprinkled with veterans, and should win plenty of games.

HIGH SCHOOL

FENCING

The East Providence fencers were successful in their only meet this year, defeating Central 7 to 2. The team was composed of the following boys: Jack Myatt, Joe Birman, Johnny Cole, Captain Bob Zucci, Don Mair and Paul Bassett. Bob Zucci and Joe Birman went into the finals for the individual state championship, Birman losing to Pitts of Classical, who was the state champion, and Zucci finishing with second place honors.

HIGH SCHOOL

GOLF

Coach Clifford Good's golf team is composed of high-caliber material, with only one senior on the team. They have had one meet to date, and although they lost 11 to 7, this is not a bad sign because of the fact that the team was playing in its first match, and all were not up to par. Stan Kozlowski, who is only a sophomore, had the lowest score of the day, a 79. Stan Mazeka, the only senior, is the number two man, while Bill Perry and Steve Tsonas are number three and four men respectively. Hazelton and Barry are other candidates who may also see service soon.

This team should make a fine showing in all of its contests, and we feel sure that it will.

HIGH SCHOOL

TENNIS

Coach Ernest Goodwin, our coach of many fine Townie tennis teams, is faced with the problem of developing a team out of a group of sophomores and juniors, who have had no experience in the scholastic tennis league.

The team suffered a serious setback when two likely-looking prospects, George Taylor and John Burdick, were declared ineligible.

Don Robbins is the number one man and George Flint, number two. The third man is to be picked from the following boys: Earl Sweeney, August Vancouyghan, Bob Williams, and Oliver Hopkins.

This team, as inexperienced as it may be, has much talent, and we believe that it will distinguish itself on the tennis court as well as its predecessors have.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Louise Kelly, aims to promote athletics among the girls of this school.

The club opened last fall with the initiation of new members at the annual Hallowe'en party. Swimming, under the direction of Miss Betty Bourne, and bowling, which has Miss Harriet Goff as its leader and which now functions as a separate club, were organized and proved very popular.

In November the club held a very successful skating party at Crescent Park, planned by a committee headed by Enid Rook and Olive Messer.

Headed by Olive Cameron, social chairman, a Christmas party, which was enjoyed by all, was given.

In the spring golf was organized with Miss Elizabeth Gordon as the instructor. In the near future the girls taking part in this sport hope to play matches with the Hope High School and Pembroke girls.

Indoor baseball attracted a great many enthusiasts, and many sore muscles and sprained fingers were derived from the fun.

The club, through each of its sports, has tried to bring many enjoyable hours to the participants and always welcomes those who enjoy taking part.
